

FOR BOYS AND GIRLS.

SOME GOOD STORIES FOR OUR JUNIOR READERS.

Bob Casey's Terrible Ride—Caught in a blizzard while carrying Gene's mail...

Lucy's Birthday. EVERYBODY was excited about Lucy's birthday...

Types of youth and love and hope! Friendly hearts you must greet...

Kindly has your life begun. We pray that heaven may send to our flowers a warm sun...

Bob Casey's Terrible Ride. Some years ago Port Benton had a daily mail from Helena...

Mr. R. A. Frickler says that so far as telescopes and physical research have yet led us, in size, in situation...

One Friday morning, an hour after Bob had left for Helena...

But before long the horse was as helplessly lost as the boy. He wandered, wandered, and found no way out of the desert...

This he did throughout the whole of a dreadful day, that seemed to Bob, and doubtless to horse, too, longer than an ordinary week...

Though the storm still raged with unrelenting fury, Bob succeeded in making out by pulling and matting the pack...

Another night came, and another day, and days and nights after that...

Meantime the people of Benton had been searching for the missing horse and wagon...

One of the merriest of merry evenings comes by the name of "mummers."

Now call in the other boys and girls and set them to trying to find out who is the most cunning...

Notes as a defense against torpedoes and torpedo discharge...
