On Forgiveness.

Those who withhold forgiveness when penitently asked, exhibit an error fatal only to themselves. They are thereby placed in the position of creating the greatest error and through which the penitent is really pardoned.

The Proof of Love.

The proof of love is in giving. A love that gives nothing, that makes no sacrifice but asks and expects all, is not love, it is selfishness and some undesirable trait.

The Salesman.

"Let me see some of your black kid gloves," said a Southfield young fellow to Frank Blakeslee one day last week.

Hudson's—THE BIG STORE—Detroit.

FOR WOMEN

Standard Staple Dry Goods at less than Manufacturer's Prices.

Sunday, July 4th, 1897, the intense heat melted the plug of the automatic fire extinguisher in the large wholesale dry goods house of Burnham, Stroepel and Co., Detroit, sprinkling a large portion of their stock consisting of Table Linens, Napkins, Embroideries, Lace, Lace Curtains, Curtain Net, Ginghams, Prints, Flannels, Flannellettes, Tweed Jeans, Overalls, Underwear, etc., the very "bread and butter" of household necessities.

The Great Majority

Of these goods are not damaged in the least, in fact you would never know they had ever been subject to damage if we hadn't told you. They are just as good as the day they were made.
