Prominent Agricultural College Students Confer Safe Cracking and Robbery

Deputy Oil Inspectors Appointed

Accidental Killing at South Haven

Students Spied the M. A. G. Funds

The mystery surrounding the robbing and blowing up of the vault in the office of Secretary Butterfield, of the Michigan Agricultural College, on the night of April 6, has been solved, and Clinton D. Butterfield, aged 19, youngest son of Secretary J. L. Butterfield, of the state board of agriculture, and C. Devere Miller, aged 20, son of Dr. Carroll E. Miller, of Cadillac, both students at the college have confessed the crime.

The fathers of the boys were well-nigh crushed by the confession of their sons, but both aided the officers in every possible way to clear up the matter. This done, they figured up the loss to the state and government, and arranged to make it good. The amount taken from the vault was about $2,300. It is under bond that $700 was returned by young Butterfield and $600 by Miller. The latter was held by Miller. Butterfield had got away with the larger sum, it being his extravagant expenditures which led to his confession and the unraveling of the mystery.

Miller and Butterfield have been before the U. S. commissioners and given bail for their appearance at the fall term of the district court.

Detroit's Masonic Temple Dedicated.

The magnificent new temple of the Masons of Detroit was dedicated by the grand lodge officers with interesting ceremonies. A big party, in which all of the Masonic bodies of the city participated preceded the actual dedication and was witnessed by many thousands of people who thronged the streets. The formalities of the dedication proper were particularly interesting and impressive. They were conducted by Master Worthington, Master Lon B. Winsor, assisted by the other grand lodge officers and the officers of Zion lodge No. 1, the oldest lodge in the city or the state. In the evening a reception was tendered the grand lodge officers. There were a number of splendid speeches and plenty of good music, so that the thought of the Michigan Women's Press association, the Masons, their wives, daughters, sisters and friends, who swarmed throughout the whole of the immense building, which was prettily decorated with flowers and plants, all thoroughly enjoyed the occasion.

Fatal Shooting Results From a Joke.

Samuel Ketchum, of Kalamazoo, was shot by his nephew, Bertie Haines, at South Haven, and died in five minutes. The men were playing in the woods, owned by F. E. Thompson, and had been playing jokes on one another, and someone was throwing water into the house. Samuel Ketchum laughingly remarked, "I will put on an old coat, and not care whether I get wet or not." Just as he stepped outside the house the shot was fired, striking him in the shoulder and cutting an artery. He bled to death before help could arrive. Bertie Haines said he thought Ketchum was making a trap when he fired. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict of accidental and unintentional shooting.

Too Much Hypnotism.

The Adrian high school picnic at Sand Lake was spoiled by an incident not on the program. Frank Boyd gave a display of his power by hypnotizing several of the boys. Miss Mary Chandler, daughter of Rev. C. H. Chandler, desired Boyd to put her under hypnotic influence and he did so effectually. When he brought her to consciousness she fainted, and it was a half hour before she could be brought to her senses. The fainting continued all the way home, and serious results were feared. There are many amateur hypnotists among the high school students, and this has dampened their ardor for the craze.

Sad Suicide of a Young Girl.

Rose Carleton, aged 17, committed suicide at Grand Rapids, by hanging herself in the bars with a gas ring apron. Her mother is dead and her father, J. W. Carleton, a piano tuner, was stern toward her. He left 14 days recently and instructed the housekeeper not to let the girl go out with any young men. She went out several times, nevertheless, and the housekeeper threatened to tell her father. The father was to return home soon, and apprehensive of punishment, the girl hung herself.

Ann Arbor Railway to Enter the U. P.

The Ann Arbor railway has been merged into the Chicago & North Western, running from Manistowic to within six miles of Manistowic and will put in a car shop at Manistowic. It will complete the line to Manistowic, with a branch to Negaunee. The whole line to be 65 miles long. Boats will run all winter to Manistowic, and a special boat will continue on the old route to Manistowic.

HOW TO FIND OUT

Mr. Gertrude Allen Whitaker, daughter of Capt. M. Allen, of Portland, Maine, married at Lansing on a wedding from Denver, Colo., where for several years she has been prominent in politics, having been employed in one of the city departments. It is alleged that she is implicated in an election fraud, and on this the warrant is based. Miss Allen was clerk of her party district and handled the ballot boxes. It is discovered that they were tampered with, but she denies all knowledge of how it happened. She was notified of the discovery several weeks ago, and immediately went offering to return voluntarily and help straighten matters out, if it was true. She was taken to Denver as soon as officers arrive from there.

Nine years ago Mrs. Whitaker went to Lansing from Portland, and entered a draft for $2,000 at the Lansing National bank, which afterwards, it was alleged, proved to be forged. About the same time she married Whitaker with her cousin, Frank M. Allen. She was caught two years later, brought back and tried for alleged complicity in the election fraud. She was released and the case was nolle prosequi. Mrs. Whitaker obtained a divorce from her husband and went back to Colorado.

State Bar Association.

The eighth annual convention of the Michigan State Bar Association was held at Port Huron. President O'Brien J. Atkinson, in his annual address, gave a history of the association and recommended the reading of biographies of leading members of the bar at future meetings of the association. An animated discussion was had on the subject of the law school of the U. M. of Law school and the Detroit College of Law to practice upon the strength of the law school. The general trend of the discussion was in opposition to the law. There were a number of other interesting and important matters discussed. The entertainment of the law school included a trip on the river to Sag Island and a banquet at the Harrington hotel.

Music Teachers Meet at Detroit.

The twelfth annual convention of the Michigan Music Teachers association was held at Detroit. Mayor Maybury made a happy speech of welcome and offered to buy a new piano for the teachers, but the police refused permission for fear of a riot. The program of the convention included several concerts and addresses upon important papers and addresses upon subjects near the heart of music lovers and teachers, one of the most pleasing entertainments. The convention was presided over by the celebrated pianist, Leopold Godowsky. Mrs. Ida Norton, of Detroit, was elected president and E. J. H. of Detroit was elected secretary.

Masonic Hunt Goes Free.

The trial of Miss Minnie Healt, the Macon, county girl who shot her father after he had abused the whole family, was held at Macon. She was found not guilty, resulting in a verdict of not guilty. After hearing several witnesses the prosecutor refused to proceed with the case, and she was released. The action of the prosecuting attorney, credited with the plan, spectators rushed to and fro in the court room crying and wringing each other's hands for joy. There was scarcely a dry eye in the room.

Women's Press Association.

The eighth annual meeting of the Michigan Women's Press association was held at Grand Rapids. After having enjoyed the hospitality of the city, the women were treated to a business session. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. M. E. C. Bates, of Traverse City; vice-presidents, Mrs. Louie A. Leggett, of Bay City, Mrs. Florence A. Chase, of Grand Rapids, and Mrs. Belle Perry, of Charlotte; secretary, Marie Nelson, Leos; treasurer, Mrs. Mary A. Stewart, of Battle Creek.

Mother Died for Her Little One.

Lightning struck the house of Geo. Copeland during a storm at Sturgis, Mich., and burned it to the ground at 3 a. m. The grown people escaped from the burning structure without trouble, but Mrs. Beaman, Copeland's wife, was killed and buried it to the ground at 3 a. m. Blind Tigers Fought.

About midnight Sheriff Lamberson and eight deputies, swooped down upon South Haven and made a raid upon the illegal whiskey shops, four blind tigers, including the famous hotel, Barnes and Geo. Cross. Four persons were captured. In one of the places is an ingenious device, which is called a Ferris wheel. The machine is placed in one of the cars and it is told to bring whatever the fancy demands, shortly afterwards, a man said to appear without any knowledge from where or how.
