BIRMINGHAM, FRIDAY, AUG. 6, '07

They that know no evil will suspect none.

Pay in the coal industries is really a matter of minor importance.

Sullivan's "Invincible rushes" now apparently are used only in connection with the growler.

There is at least one thing positively known about a man who claims to be a hypnotist; he is a liar.

A Connecticut couple are going to the arctic regions on their honeymoon. Here's hoping they'll have an ice time.

A gay old bird, who gave his age as 72 at the police station, was arrested the other day in New York city for scorching.

A. C. Fisher is erecting a lovely new residence on his farm, formerly known as the old Shropshire Stock Farm, west of this village. The old house which they now occupy has undergone many improvements since their occupancy and it will be used for a tenant house after the new one is completed.

Buying a sewing machine is comparatively easy. What is the best and the cheapest to buy should receive careful consideration. It can be settled once and for all by buying the Domestic, which for 34 years has stood every test. Experience has show that they last a life-time.

Our streets could be made things of beauty if every one would cut the weeds in front of their prosperity, gather in their old cans, tins, rubbers, et al and then have a willow street.
