Casey-Arthur Scandal A MOTHER'S KICK.

Casey Swore He Didn't Know About the Money. She does not Like the Vertical and Latest Style of Writing.

The examination of Mr. and Mrs. Casey of Birmingham charged with the embezzlement of $10,000 from John Arthur of Farmington, which was to have been completed in Stafford's court last week Friday, was again postponed, this time on account of the sudden illness of Mrs. Casey.

A Birmingham correspondent says Justice Casey and his wife are quite confident they will come out all right. Mrs. Casey said: "My defense is this: How did I get John Arthur's money, if he hadn't give it to me? Cousin Johnnie is playing the school boy act of giving something and then wanting it back again."

After a long and painful illness, borne with great fortitude and patience, W. A. Stearns passed peacefully away at his elegant home on his village Sunday evening last, at the age of 67.
