Senator Plingree Sends a Message to the Legislature Calling for a Large War Appropriation—Weather and Crop Legislative Doings.

Michigan Votes $600,000 for War. The House has passed a bill authorizing an appropriation of $600,000. The necessary bill was passed by the House within an hour and a half.

It is further recommended that such legislation be passed so that it might have the military and field organization of the national guard, naval militia and volunteer militia of the state.

Legislative Notes. Representative Chamberlain introduced an appropriation bill for the House in accordance with the governor's war message.

Both the Senate and House adopted very eulogistic resolutions on the death of Hon. John W. Moon, of Muskegon, who was one of the members of the senate and later a member of congress.

In the House two of the recently-elected new members were sworn in Monday afternoon by Speaker Cassin and Carl A. Smith, of the second congressional district.

GRANTS ARMISTICE.

The consideration of the Plingree bill in the Senate committee of the whole was stormy, and it was under fire from the start. Numerous amendments were made.

After repeatedly, and with much force, declaring that she would not submit to the United States interference with her territory and independence, the western hemisphere, Spain has been brought to a very different state of mind.

The Spanish minister at Washington delivered the documents in person to the state department. He notified the state department that he had received the Havana that Gen. Blanco had been present in executing the orders of the regent.

The first effect of this will be to bring about a complete cessation of all Spanish hostilities throughout the island.

There was absolutely no demonstration either of approval or disapproval from the crowded galleries in the senate chamber.

The following day the Senate spent in discussing the Cuban situation and the conditions existing in the island.

When everybody is asking whether it is to be or not, the state of business is to be decided.

Joseph Paull Gibson, the British electrician who supplied submarine mines to the Spanish government, cables from London: "I have not the honor to be able to say that the Maine was deliberately destroyed with a 500-pound gun mine as invented and supplied by me."
