

THE PLAZA DE TOROS.

THE walls of the city are plastered with the names of the great bull fighters...

It is after 3 now, but 'El Diablo' (otherwise Pepe Moreno), who is the principal figure in the fight, doesn't care a bit...

Accustomed to such receptions, Pepe waits motionless, with folded arms and smiling, until the horns and applause is over...

TRAMPLING AND TEARING. A baby he is becoming in his old age! Before a course he is in the arena where he left her seven years ago...

Pepe always fights in his own peculiar fashion, and alternates between the banderillas. The horses he will permit, holding that bull fighting is an art, a science, a technique...

Horses of the Kaiser. Emperor William, always eager to lead the horse, liked to ride on horseback. His horses are usually of English breed, although on rare occasions he buys them in Germany...

Strong Evidence. "There has evidently been a reform in our city administration, despite the talk of corruption which has been going on since the election..."

It is said that Dr. Temple, the Archbishop of Canterbury, is a man of his experience in sewing on of buttons and darning of stockings.

THE HISTORY OF CUBA

It was the Second Point Which Columbus Landed on His First Voyage—Down to the Present Day—Story of Its Revolution.

Soon after the discovery which immortalized his name, Columbus cruised through the West Indies, which the natives called "Cuba." Today it is brought into our notice, not on account of its delightful climate, which would seem almost a perpetual summer...

CHEERLESS ALASKA WEATHER. Passengers on the Oregon Have a Cold and Dismal Experience.

The City of Juneau, Alaska, Feb. 29 and started for Killisnoe in a fierce north gale. A blinding snowstorm was then raging, and the captain and crew could see nothing but the white blanket of snow they lay in the bay over their heads...

GEN. ANTONIO MACEDO, equipped, however, was the so-called machete. Originally this was not a weapon at all, merely an implement used for cutting passages through woods and brushy cane...
