

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY WHITEHEAD & MITCHELL.

Entered as second-class matter, March 10, 1879, at Birmingham, Ala., under post-office number 100.

These Krupp guns sent as "Kitchener funerals" from Germany...

While the captain general at Manila is encouraging the authorities at Madrid...

How precious the memory of a writer of splitting humor...

This is the season when even the alarms of war cannot repress the enthusiasm of the disciples of general Frank Watson...

Austria, aside from its rulers, is not nearly so Spanish in its sympathies as has been generally supposed...

J. R. Cravath makes some useful suggestions to owners of electric-light plants in towns of 2,000 to 5,000 inhabitants...

That salaries and wages are governed by the profits of business has been a commonplace of political economy...

The titles of the king of Spain suggest a large part of the history of the world...

That the child is father to the man is confirmed by a reference to the present restless emperor of Germany...

"CALLS FOR HAMAN" LAST SUNDAY'S SUBJECT.

From the Text: "So they Hanged Haman on the gallows: That he Had Prepared for Mordecai..."

Here is an Oriental courier about the most offensive man in Hebrew history, Haman by name...

To make a long story short, through Queen Esther this whole plot was revealed to her husband, Ahasuerus...

Acash, this oriental tale reminds us of the fact that wrongs we prepare for others return upon ourselves...

Further, let the story of Haman teach us how quickly turns the wheel of fortune...

Again this Haman's history shows an outward possessions and circumstances...

While yet fully vested in authority and the chief adviser of the Persian monarch...

In olden times the man who was to receive the honors of knighthood...

Again, learn a lesson that pride goeth before a fall...

Acash, this oriental tale reminds us of the fact that wrongs we prepare for others return upon ourselves...

The old notion to which hygienists and many other people have clung so tenaciously for years...
