Worth for Hunt.

Tomorrow (Saturday) is Deering Day in Birmingham. Nothing Like It Ever Before Seen in this Village. Fifty Deering Bingers Delivered to Their Buyers Saturday, June 4, Big Time, Big Dinner, Everybody Made Happy and Satisfied by Wm. Hunt, the Active Agent for the Deering Ideal Binger.

Birmingham is to have a treat next Saturday, June 4th, at which time Wm. Hunt is to make his annual delivery of the Deering Ideal binders and mowers which machines William says cannot be beaten anywhere by anybody. This delivery is to be done up in style as is now customary with modern dealers.

Thrilling Account of our Klondikers. Perilous Adventures Near Sheep Camp, Alaska, as Narrated by Will Benedict in his Last Epistle, Received Saturday.—The Boys Appreciate the Fact that they are Alive to Tell the Tale.

UNDER AN AVALANCHE! Electrical 'sparks' are in the air. Four new cars have been fitted out to meet the requirements of summer travel. Two new trailers are quite an acquisition to the D. & P. R. R. They are in readiness for all special occasions.

Everything along the electric line is booming under the efficient management of Sup't. Busby, as was specially illustrated during Decoration Day, when many specials were in use to convey the immense throngs to their various destinations.

In a recent letter from George Hendrie he mentioned regarding the welfare of his dog. Now if the parties who kidnapped said canine from the Power House a few days ago would return him to his native sphere the boys at the office might be able to give Mr. Hendrie the desired information. But now poor doggy's whereabouts are shrouded in mystery.

PLAY FAIR

With yourself—give your dollars the largest opportunity to do you good. We present that opportunity in clothing. For instance: Men's Suits of black lay worsted, 20 oz. to yd; made in best fashions of today in both frock and sack styles, for $10. Boys' Suits of genuine all-wool materials, sizes 8 to 17 yrs., 2 pieces, double breasted coats, pairs with double seats and knees, strongly made, for $5.

Comparing values with other store these suits are $2.50 below their prices—when these lines are gone we'll not be able to give the same qualities for the same prices. In ordering by mail add 25c to cover express charges.

HONORS FOR OUR HEROES. Birmingham Appropriately Celebrates Memorial Day.

In common with numerous cities and villages of the land Birmingham did honors to the heroic deed of the late war on Monday last. The weather was so fair, the usual showers of the day being omitted, thanks to the kindly consideration of Jupiter Pluvis.

Promptly at two o'clock the procession formed at the Methodist church and proceeded to Greenwood cemetery. J. Allen Bigelow acted as marshal of the day. At the head of the procession was the newly organized company of cadets from our high school, whose excellent marching under the command of George Reynolds was complimented on all sides.

AT THE STAGE. Whatsoever imitation there may be in playing to a house where every chair filled was caught up by Chumming Players at the first presentation of 'The Nominee' in the Lyceum this week.
