LOCAL TALENT.

The following poem was composed by ur young Baptist minister, Rev. F. L. hurch, who contributes to the columns I The Christian Herald, from which we rocured the little poetical gem below:

- The hand that rids use of my load!
 It only soon or late may be
 That vine encumbered door unlocked
 It only answer comes, His plea
 Whose love and mercy all are mocked
 My Father leads in various ways
 His trusant wandering children homeInrough dark affiletion's dreary mare—
 What matter if they only come!
- and earth with ruins all be pased. It lightnings strike and in the fissh. His little all, the' treasure rare, Shall to the depth despairing crash, If only sin cannot ensuare! What matter if my earthly home shall pass away with all my lands, If over there I only come To mansions lair, not made with han
