July Shoe Sale.

Gents' Russet Shoes
Ladies' and Oxfords.

	Shoes A few of our prices. All new goods:
Ladies Gents	and Gents' $3.50 Shoes reduced to $43.98 " 3.00 " 2.48 4.50 " 1.59 $4.00 Shoes reduced to 1.55 1.50 " 1.53 Bieyele Shoes from 90c to $1.95 pair Bieyele Shoes from $1.75 to 2.48 pair
"	Leggings from

H. B. Merritt, 17 N. Saginaw St.

EN ROUTE FOR THE CONFLICT.

An Interesting Letter From Geo. Ewing, Written on Board the U. S. S. "Yosemite."

No Generating. No Tin Tubes, No Smoke, No Explosions, No Smell, with the Detroit Vapor Stoves.

A child can light them. We also handle the Douglas, Stove Co,'s stoves from $2.50 to $15;
Two-burner Oil Stoves for $1.

Defroit Vapor Stoves.
A child can light them. We also handle the Douglas, stove Coy's stoves from $1.50 to $15.
Two-burner Oil Stoves for $1.

Dealers, in Lumber, Coal, Hardware and Agricultural Implements.

Royal Oak, Mich.

ROYAL OAK,
Quite a good deal of sickness in this vicinity.
Berry picking is the order of the data Crestent Hill farm.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Pirie entertained several guests from Detroit Sunday (a week).

Another brave boy gone to the war, and the name of James B. Hickey, Co. M., 23d Rep., Mich. Vol., Tampa, Plan, is departure Sunday. He is the olders son of N. B. Hickey.

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Hickey entertained sone of N. B. Hickey.

Mr. and Mrs. N. I. Hickey entertained sone of N. B. Hickey.

Mr. and Mrs. N. I. Hickey entertained the following guests Sunday, the vicinity of the sone of the britch and yard. Mrs. R. M. Anderford and the manned family, Mrs. and Mrs. E. Planis and family. Mrs. and Mrs. E. Planis and family. Mrs. and Mrs. E. Planis and family. Mrs. and Mrs. E. Planis and daughter, Mrs. Benoit, Mrs. Smith and son, I. R. Richards, Mr. Lambert and Mr. Coleman, all of Detroit.

COUNTY LINE.

W. Hoard at present:

John Preisel is shirgling his house and otherwise fixing up things.

Miss Maude Alger, of Royal Oak, visited her sister at Warrent lately.

Whent in our vicinity is good, hight, corn adoptates looking well.

The hay and wheat in our neighborhood is about all taken care of in good shape.

F. Wells, the veterinary surgeon at Warren is going to try for representative this coming campaign.

SOUTHFIELD. May Gilbert, of Howell, is visiting at

dr. Willis'. Say, did we come near having a cy-ony, ou we come near having a cy-clone Friday, well we guess yes.

Mrs. Stanton and son, of Bay City, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Helen Stewart.

days,
Mr. and Mrs. Harris attended his grandfather's funeral at Dearborn

Does Baby Thrive?

If your baby is delicate and sickly and its food does not nourish it, put fifteen or twenty drops of Scott's twenty drops of Scott's Emulsion in its bottle three or four times a day and you will see a marked change.

We have had abundant proof that they will thrive on this emulsion when other food fails to nourish them.

An Enterprising Druggiet.

There are few men more wide awake and enterprising than Whitehead & Mitchell, who spare no pains to secure distributions of the security of the sec It is the same with larger children that are delicate. Scott's Emulsion seems to be the element lacking in their food. Do not fail to try it if your children do not thrive. It is as useful for them in summer as in winter.

Ask your doctor if this is not true.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York

"CRAZY!"

I should say yes.

The boys and girls are all wild over the fine display of Fireworks that W. R. Owen has in his store and or rireworks that W. K. Owen has in his store and windows. The largest stock and greatest variety ever brought into Oakland County. You should see his funny goods, and do not forget to look at his Hammocks from 75c to $4.50. Croquet Sets cheap as ever. Call and see him.

W. R. OWEN.

The Latest Hit.

Never Kick a Man When He's Down "Never Kick a Man When He's Down", is the title On a new musical production by Peba D. Comstock. It is a very pretty song with chorus printed for a quartet and contains a sentiment which cannot help but gain applaud from its hearers. The rapid increase in orders for this piece of music leads the publish-ers to believe that it will enter the ranks Communicated.

How to Look Good.

How to Look Good.

Good looks are cally more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the liver te inactive you have a billious look; if your stometh of disordered yor have a dyseptic look; if your stometh of the standard of the angle of the standard of the States treasurer, has received from Rev Hume Elliot of Manchester, England, a money order for 10s 6d and a letter saying the half guinea is a token of regard for the United States in its presi larda, and say, judging by the stench on the other side of the hill where the Sjantia charged from, there must be a great lard is charged from, there must be a great many more.

I larda charged from, there must be a great many more.

Spanish princers; so the beat we are classified from. They are bungry look ing causes and seem to be enjoying them, and the state of Is sometimes abused, but properly used, Sloman's Diamond Wedding Pure Rye Whiskey is of marvelous building-up power. All leading druggists and deal.

more serious kind than that with which is name has been identified.

"Oh," ahe suddenly exclaimed, "this lives a man," "What would you do?" he asked. "I'll not say what I would ob, but there is one thing I will confess that I wouldn't do." "And that is—" "I wouldn't all around as if I had handcuffs on when I happened be allow with a gir!."—Cleveland Lead.

Guaranteed to Cure.

Dana's

SARSAPARILLA
"The Kind that Cures."
with this guarantee. NO BENEFIT—NO PAY. It, after using a bottle of it, you feel no benefit has been received, you can GET YOUR MONEY BACK.

All Principitat Keep It.

All Druggists Keep It.

Werse This Philistians.

Oaptain Sampson-Weigh anchor at ence, sir, and—
The Executive Officer—We can't weigh anchor; sir, can't weigh anchor; why not?

"Can't weigh anchor; why not?

"Cut the cables and go ahead full speed."

"Beg pardon, sir, but we can't go ahead."

"What's that? Can't san ahead."

"Beg pardon, sir, but we can't go ahead."
"What's that' Can't go ahead."
"No, sir. There are four newspaper beats tied to our bow chains, sir."
beats tied to our bow chains, sir."
"We—we can't back up, sir."
"Can't back up!"
"No, sir. There are three newspaper boats fastened to our under, sir, and two more are lashed to our screw."

was the shwatest craychure in the wurruld.

Dinnis—Did Oi iver till yez that, Ju dy?

dy?
Judy-Indade, an' ye did, Dinnis.
Dinnis-Begorra, an' ef that's so, thin Oi invy mesilf the condition Oi musht hev be'n in at the toime.—Richmond Dispatch.

His Rank.
Twynn—You addressed that man as general, didn't you?
Triplett—Yes,
"How did he acquire that rank?"
"Uconferred to nhim."
"What for?"
"Because b.

when she is we. Could you?
Romeo Barnstormer — W would depend a great deal upo of the eggs.—Life.

sitting down in my bounce, will you? | Sparkle (the well-known comic writ-er, quoting one of his latest wittleisms) | Not at all; it will only flatten it out

Miss Mattinay—Oh, come, now, Mr. Sparkle, I know that is not your own. I saw it in print the other day!—Moonshine.

a girl.
Mr. Bingley-Why? Where's Hannah?

nah?
Mrs. Bingley—Oh, she left this morning without as much as saying good-by.
Mr. Bingley—That's nice. I wonder what made her do it?
Mrs. Bingley—The oil can.—Cleveland Leader.

A Fine Morning.

pended upon?"
"I would trust him with millions."
"But you haven't the millions."
"I know. Perhaps that is the reaso why I would trust him with them."

How to Tell.
Zingboom—Gladski plays the vin the symphony orchestra, doesn't Barr—Yes.
Zingboom—First or second?
Barr—Fourth, I think, I know sits some distance from the leader.

Too Tame.

First Agitator—What did you think of Billikin's speech against the money power?

Second Agitator—It was weak—very weak. He mentioned the deadly upas tree only three times.

The Cheerful Idiot.

"And you don't believe there were ever mermaids," asked the boarder who has good to the common of the commo

BUSY

THE CURFEW BELL.

Ansists Cusion Adopted by Busy Towns

There are, it is said, 200 towns in this country in which the curfew bell is now rung at night, says Harper's Bazar. The upholders of the new recvitations quote statistics to prove that crims has decreased in consequence and the corporation of the consequence
and the corporation of the consequence
and the corporation of the stress at night and to get them, under penment is to keep children off the stress at night and to get them, under penalty of a fine in money, safety tucked away in bed before danger can assail them. When sististics about crime and its decrease are quoted the voice of them. The sististics about crime and its decrease are quoted the voice of reaching and the control of the conthem. The control of the conpended and it requires a certain amount of hardihood afterwards to so much as attempt the first argument to prove a possible other side. But there are those of us who remember among the sweetest sins of our youth the jors of running away on summer nights

when bedime came—Thery

are those of us who remember delight; there those of us who remember delight; there there was no poon any move grass heapt, the hide-and-seek behind the currant bushes and the daring plungs into some boat drawn up on the short.

No delights were ever like beness to day to have them over again. And there was no penalty of a 15 fine hand ing over our heads, only the frown on a mother's face that we could kins or laugh away in a moment. It would be a visit of the could be a curfew the could have or little ones who have to be summoned to bed by a curfew bell—a bell the sound of which they can never reason ably hope to escape, or coax into a small gainer. For them will there sound the comment of the country of the sent gain and the proper or coan show hope to be cause or coax into a small gainer. For them will the monther standing on the porter or comwhich the bell will summon them; how crowded, how unpleasant! Better then the ctreets? Perhaps! But better than all, if we only knew how it could be done, would be no poverty, no cramped rooms and no evil streets, so long as little children dwelt among

THE CURFEW BELL.

A DOG STOPS A TRAIN.

A DOG STOPS A TRAIN.

A DOG STOPS A TRAIN.

A Ter saving a Babyr Life He Modestly Takes to the Woods.

Train No. 30 on the Indianapolis and Vincennes, in charge of Conductor F.

W. Russe of Indianapolis, was tearing along toward Indianapolis yastering
along toward Indianapolis yastering
along toward Indianapolis yastering along the train of the train fraction of the train fraction of the train fraction and acting in a peculiar manner. The dog's actions looked suspicious and, as a measure of caution, Dorsey alut off control. When the train reached a it, and then, with a yelp, started for the woods. Then it was that Dorsey saw that there was something red between the rails, and he threw on the tween the rails, and he threw on the train rame to a standettill with the feet of a pretty, fasce-baired baby in a red frock. The child was about 2 years old and had been playing with the dog. The train crew ran forward and Bagageaman Frankin picked up the child, which laughed and crowed up th

Bill Waris, Task Massest.

From the San Francisco Post: The happiest living being in the whole camp is without doubt Bill Waris, who came to California with one of the Colorado companies. Bill is not regularly enlisted either as a private or a mascot, but he is "one of the gang." He is the flattest and homeliest little horned toad that any one state of the colorado companies. Bill is not seen that the colorado companies that the flattest and homeliest little horned toad that any one state of the colorado companies. Bill is readed to California carefully stowed away in one corner of a private's knapack, but the trip and change of climate did not agree with him. He became listless and seemed to take no interest in life or flies, and gradually drooped during the cold, rainy weather, till one morning he was found odd and stift. His master rard, no Bill was buried in the sand and a firecarcker exploded over his grave. Bill's forgotten grave was armplied by many feet during the next few days. Then came the hot weather, when the me were forced to seek what abelter their little tents afforded. While some were forced to seek what abelter their little tents afforded. While some on closer inspection discovered Billy Warts contentedly winking and bilinking in the sun, while his allees were bulging with files he had anapped of a discarded bactor ring. Bill Warts, Toad, Mascot

Some He Mad Overlooked, Washington Evening Star: "This country," said the foreign gentleman, who is given to trite remarks, "hasn't any picturesque rulas." Hasn't It!" exclaimed the man of intense local pride. "You ought to go out west and look at some of those 16 to 1 castles in the air!"

PECK'S CORNER.

Trading at Peck's

Great Cut in Prices of Millinery This Week.

es' Sailor Hats out from ... 49c to 25c. Large assortment of Children's Hats. Trimmed " " 33, 3.50 to 31.90 all 36, 37, 37.30. Pattern Hats cut to 34. Muslin Underwear--Some Specially Good Things Just in.

e Ribbed Underwear—

All cars stop and start from Peck's Corner.

Make this store your waiting room. Packages, can be left here.

Books and magazines on the counter. Let this be your headquarte.

SAMUEL N. PECK.

Corner Huron and Saginaw Sts.,

FOR WOMAN AND HOME

TEMS OF INTEREST FOR MAIN

State — Pretty Lev Netsed Dresses for Children—Cocking School.

Training Housewires.

Belgian authorities recognise the fact that one of the best qualifications for a wife is the ability to manage will-ordered home, and have undertaknown of the state o

In every way.

The girls go through a regular course in the laundry as well as in the kitch- and I would give more than on the world give more Postar Saine.

The yolks of three aggs beaten, such teatpoonful of sain, one tablespeenship teatpoonful of sain, one tablespeenship teatpoonful of sain, one tablespeenship teatpoonful of the sain of en, and order everywhere's especially insisted upon. Two hours a week are sigven to instruction in making dresses, darning stockings, and all kinds of new and the stockings, and all kinds of the stocking and all kinds of the stocking and the stockings, and all kinds of children are also given. They are taught in other clauses how to bhigh up per kinds of silments. The result of the stocking and the silments when a Brusses maidea marries ahe is more likely to be a such a such as the silments are the silments of the such as th necked dresses with no sleeves at all, just a ruffle over the shoulders—and socks to go with these that will all sleep have less to match the bake arms. The tinier the tot is the pretter the costume and the more the vogine.

to the dainty chiffon sash falling to the hem at the back, tucked nanowly and rounded at its ends, then edged all around with a ruchles of the chiffon.

A strange freak of nature occurred on the farm of Daniel Whaley, near Clio recently, when a calf, born without even an excuse for a tail, first saw the light

That's rather strong, but we mean it. If your blood is im-pure, your nerves weak, your stomach, liver, or kidneys wrong, you can buy a bottle of Fing Floats Over a Church.

Bethany Presbyterian church, Philadelphia, has flung out a flag which will not be taken down until the war is over.