OSING

Of Gents' Clothing and Furnishings.

We are determined to quit the Clothing Business and our immense trade last week is a convincing argument that the unprecedented at which we are selling everything in our store is appreciated by the people of Oakland Co., and that we can do what we propose to very auickly.

LOW PRICES

We sold more goods last week than ever before in the same lines and we could not possibly wait upon the people. We have secured additional help and will now be able to serve everybody while the goods last.

Our Goods are New and Up=to=Date in every line, but the first comers get the best selections, so don't delay.

Others may sell you something at reduced but we will sell you anything and everything cheaper than you ever bought them or ever will again.

Horse Killed at Franklin

On Friday last Antone Johnson and on, of Farmington, drove over to Van-son, of Farmington, drove over to Van-Every's mill at Franklin on business On arriving at the mill he left the horse On arriving at the mill be left the borse in charge of his son and went inside. After a while the boy got tired of holding the horse and tying the riens to the spokes of the wheel he left it. The flies being so bad the horse started up a little and as he did so the reins tightened and then he changed his course by backing up till finally he dropped over 'a 12-foot wall and broke his neck, leaving Mr. Johnson in a sad plight indeed.
