Not far from Regal Elm, on a main travel road, there is a modest homestead known throughout the village as Squire's farm. It is an inquisitive and determined to find it begin at the head of the principal street in a rural and he grasped it. So we stood, no one knows how long, the old man and the young girl in and dominated by the sun.

A "Hitch" in Trousers and a Cut in Prices.

We're selling 600 pairs of Men's Trousers--our $4, $3.50 and $3 lined at $2.45.

Included in this large assortment are hair line stripes, fancy chevrons, serges, worsteds, cassimeres, tweeds--up-to-date in every respect. It isn't hard to find a cause for this great Trousers sale. We're getting ready for Fall stock--sort of house cleaning--then again July and August are generally quiet months for business, and the great activity of this Clothing Store must decrease, even for a day--though profits suffer. These trousers deserve the place of honor and remember with Traver's label they have it. Out-of-town people we would like you to share these bargains.
