The Finest Ever Read About - Se w They Celebrate in the Golden West:

SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA, THE PLACE

Priday evening Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wesley Rainey entertained a number of their friedds at their hone on South Ninth, the occasion being the 30th anniversery of their marriage.

Smilax, palms, chrysanthemums, cartainon and roses brightened the parlors, hall and dining-room, and in one corner of the back parlor a bower of greenery was constructed, from which hung a horeshoo of chrysanthemum.

About 9.30 o'clock, as Miss Lessie Rainey played the wedding march, the Rainey played the wedding march, the bride and groom of thirty years entered brids and groom of thirty years entered and took positions breast the floral symbol of good luck, with Supervisor Samuel P. Aver, of Milipitas, and Mrs. Samuel P. Aver, of Milipitas, and Mrs. Barker gave the bride away, and the marriage ceremony was performed by His Hunory Jedge M. H. Hlyland. At the conclusion of the service those present gathered around the boot and hostess with congratulations and good wiskes, and Mrs. Josephine Bromley read the following original poem:—Married at Brinninghams, Mich., Desember 16.

Married at Birmingham, Mich., Decer 1868, by the Rev. Mr. Hastings, Harriet A Philbrick to Joseph Wesley Rainey.

A piano duet by M ss Lois Bastabrook a Ad Miss Lesse Ramy was played with skell, after which Judge Hyland in a m at happs manner presented a set of praft handled knives as a tokes of esterm from the Order of the Basters Star. Mrs. Rainey thanked all in a feeling manner, and Mr. Ramey, unable to make a fitting speech, compromised by singing a song in his inimitable style, accompassive by Mrs. Rainey on the piano and Mrs. Lessie style, accompassive by Mrs. Rainey on the violin. Several choice musical selections were also sung by Mr. Rainey, Brosse Conant and E. E. Chase. Mrs. George B.
