

Tne-Blue-Cross. Right here is the blue cross

Move large trees in winter time.

Mr. Fields and family have moved to Pontiac

John Stabler and wife Sundayed in Detroit. Will Butler, of Detroit. Sundaved

E. L. Keyser, of Pontiac, was in town Monday. Jas. Cobb, of Ann Arbor spen

Sunday at home. John Donaldson lost 80 hogs by cholera recently.

Miss Edna Weller spent her holidays at Ann Arbor.

Miss Eva Stabler is spending days at Plymouth.

Go and look at Parks' new tree and go and do likewise.

Oakland county yielded 475,000 pounds of cheese last year.

The Blue Cross appeareth for twentieth annual visit.

A little late, but we certainly wish everybody a Happy New Year.

Mr. Frank Meno, of St. Clair wisited at Robert Thomas' last week.

Miss Grace Mills, of Detroit, has been spending the holiday season at your name on this paper or wrapper, Miss Eva Adcock, of Detroit, has been spending a few days with Miss Ethel Bruce.

Mrs. George Wright and daughter Florence visited her mother in Lap-eer last week.

Mrs. E. J. Skinner will spend a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Hanna.

Now. ladies, here is your chance. Plain dress s'kirts made for one dol lar by Mrs. Ed. Lamb.

Harry and Will Groves and Jas. Lawson are attending the Gutchess Business College in Detroit.

V. Nixon is talking pretty loud in his new ad this week. Just read i

Hand picked beans for sale at Ed. R. Smith & Co's depot ware-house, 30c per peck. Call early, 2t

Before you say there is no business, in town just count the number of loaded teams that come in each day.

The L. L. C. will meet with Mrs. Bigelow next Tuesday evening. The lesson will be part iv., in book mer living near Orion, was rendered speechless last week by a stroke of

How many of our people are look ing up the laws passed by some of neighbors in regard to a better plan

C. Ellenwood and family have moved their sleeping quarters to the new Erity block, which is much more convenient.

Escar Hough-The pond, ice, by his spectacles.

live hardware firm in Pontiac, are offering stoves at rare bargains, Call and see them.

The theme of the pastor at the United Presbyterian church on next Sunday afternoon will be "The Believer's Bank Note."

Cecil McKibbon, of Detroit, spent Sunday and Monday with Alex Groves and family.

Don't fail to read the notice of the Dutch lunch; and don't fail to Prof. E. F. Waldo, superintendent take your supper there and see the of our school, Miss Delia E. Crosby, pretty Dutch girls.

Mrs. L. White and son, Frank, of Southfield, and Mrs. J. VanEvery, of Franklin, spent New Years with J. D. VanEvery and tamily.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bott, of East Dayton, Tuscola county, Mich., with little daughter, are visiting with her brothers, David and John McKinly.

Miss Ella Johnson, of Seymour Eake, who recently tried to kill her-self, is now at the E. M. asylum. She is becoming idiotic and plays with a doll all day long.

The Novel Club will meet Satur-day evening at Library room. The book to be discussed is "All Sorts and Conditions of Men," by Walter Everyone invited. Mrs. George Harmon, of New suddenly last Tuesday. Her many friends of this place were much grieved to hear of her death. What we want and could have, as p, formerly of Troy, died very what we want and could have, as far as acreage is concerned, is a beet-sugar factory. Won't some man start the ball a rolling? A great many farmers are anxious for it. many tarmers are anxious for it.

Next Sunday morning Rev. F. L.

Church will preach to his people from the subject "The Ideal of Christian Living." In the evening,
"Solomon's Temple and its Lessons

The attention of readers of the Eccentric is directed to the new ad. of Taylor, Woolfenden & Co. in to-day's issue. They offer big induceday's issue.

ments. But read the announcement for yourselves. James Rule, after twelve absence, smiled on his many friends in and around Birmingham recently He lives with his mother up at Novesta, where his father died some four or five years ago.

Twenty times! Oh! Subscribers, you befold me! Twenty times more I hope to come to all who need my services in helping chase in the dollars due the printer for this grand and glorious periodical.

Have you seen the beautiful elm tree that Alex. Parks has set out on the north side of Maple Ave. Would that some of the vacant places on Woodward Ave. might be filled in in the same way.

That mammoth mart known as Miss Clara Beavis, of Detroit, has Hudson's Big Store speaks to our been spending a few days in town.

A good time was had at the reception at U. P. church Saturday evention at U. P. church Saturday evention. well, you will go and buy.

> and then act accordingly. have a dollar due us, don't eat, drink or sleep until you bring it in, for we cannot until you do. See?

Some mischievous poys tied up a small package and dropped it in the street. It was brought into the P. O. by different finders no less than 76 times, and until worn out, the bad boys securing is each time and "setting" it again.

Thomas Maley, of White Lake ownship, drowned himself in Clin-on river, in Pontiac, on Wednesday night of last week. He was about night of last week. to be married, and having had some trouble with his mother, ended the matter by committing suicide.

Look into some of the home made unhappy by use of strong drink and make up your mind whether you are on the side that wants to help that poor woman and her children or are trying to tody to the powers that make wine.

An Illinois paper uses the fact that all women do not vote at school elections as an argument against woman's suffrage. There are hun-dreds of men who never go near the ballot box, but we never hear that they ought to be disfraachised.

Peck's Corners in Pontiac is the Mecca to which the ladies will all ment which he publishes in this is-sue of the Eccentric. Peck sells millinery because quality and prices

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church will meet this (Friday) afternoon in the church parlors.

Table committee—Mrs. Betsey Shain Escar Hough—The pond, i.e., a Table committee—Mrs. Betsey Snamup, and that great gash in his left radple, was the result helped along y his spectacles.

Zimmerman, Bros. & Alger, the and Mrs. Nellie Camp, sauce.

Elmer Stoughton, of Farmington, was about to be married recently, and gave his sweetheart a $5,000 house in Delray. When the wed-ding day came around he was there, but just too late, for she had-mar ried the other fellow. Elmer seems Howard and Mabel Glean and to be playing in pretty hard luck.

Among the attendants at the State Teachers' Institute, held at Lansing last week, who derived a great deal of benefit from its teachings were teacher in our school, and Miss Inez Caswell, who wields the birch at Schoolcraft

A merry company of friends watched the departure of the old and the entrance of the new year at and the entrance of the new year at Fairholm. An impromptup program was spiritedly rendered, and light refreshments, etc., filled the passing hours. With the singing of the doxology and "Happy New Year" the company separated, hoping to enjoy many similar reunions.

Mrs. Al Hutton, after a month's interesting reading, beautiful half absence, at Harper Hospital, where she underwent an operation performed by Dr. Walker, is home view of Wallace-Cobrnn hardware agaun, having returned Tuesday. to be excelled by any Drs. Daynale and Shaw, of our vilplace of like business in Old Oaklage, assisted, and Mrs. Hutton's land. We think we detect Guy in friends will be pleased to near of the view, coat off, and working like a nailer.

George W. Fay has been appoint

Whitehead took his family, the St. James choir, to Wonderland last week, on their annual visit. The trolley ride was great, the curio hall greater, but the stage performance was the greatest of all. All had a real jolly, lively time, and enjoyed themselves to their utmost. Started early and got back in good season

Miss Lulu Durkee, a Harper Hospital trained nurse, and who is one of the very best graduates, is now in Cuba, having sailed on the transport Manitoba Dec. 29th, 1898. Her duties will be in that country for some time to come, and we have no profession.

A factory is in our midst, engine and all, manufacturing the Safety and all, manufacturing the Salety Gate for railroad crossings. The plant is running and we certainly expect to see our old Triend, H. C. Wilson, the manager and vice presi-dent of the company, quickly outgrow his present quarters and secure the success and prosperity he richly Accompanying the subscription o Accompanying the subscription of $2 for the Eccentric for two years, Mrs. E. W. Reynolds, of Armada, sends three elegant Havanas wrapped in foil, with a guaranteelof genuineness, one for Whitey, one for Mitchell and one for J. Allen Bigelow, and as the trio smoke they all auld acquaintance be torgot."

This is the swearing off season when the good resolution man throws away his pipe and tobacco and in a few days after goes hunt-ing around the yard for them. This indig around the yard for them. This is the time, too, when the swearing off man says he is not going to whome the swearing who have a says he is not going to from a says he is not going to price of your Eccentric to 1900, in the whom has done of price of your Eccentric to 1900, in the whom has been a subscribed by after drops into a saloon with the work of the subscribed by the subscrib "just to see a man," and upon emerging is seen diligently wiping dewdrops off his whiskers.

The pleased recipients of a beau tiful calendar, showing the new Grand Trunk single arch, double track, steel bridge over Niagara River with the Falls in the distance with a card and compliments of the season from our old friend, J. E. Quick, General Baggage Agent of the Grand Trunk R. R. at Toronto were Frank Crouch, John Snow, Dr C. M. Raynale, A. Whitehead, G. H. Mitchell and a few others.

The Eccentric is necessary to the prosperity of local business men and business men who are no local-as the eccentric of the steam engine is the engine itself. You will not charge us with eccentricity Mecca to which the ladies win an in making this statement, to the turn this week after reading his is nothing eccentric about it. It is "Millinery Half Off Sale" advertisement which he publishes in this is below zero fact. Now send in your below-zero fact. Now send in your advertising and prove the truth of this assertion.

> A pretty little family wedding took place at the home of Cassius W. Crawford, in Southfield, Wednesday, December 28th, 1898, at which time Rev. F. L. Church united in the holy bonds of matrimony Mr. Irving Voorhes, of White Lake, and Miss Iva Crawford. About sixty guests (relatives) made merry at the wedding feast, and the new household will be established at White Lake, where the young couple will be pleased to entertain their many friends.

many friends.

If you want to ride the best bicycle made for the money, either $50, $40 or $45. See Mitchell before buying. This year will see a great change in bikes—30-inch wheels with 4-inch drop frames are bound to make a sensation. Whitehead & Mitchell will sell the output of the American Machine Co., of Flint, with branches at Cleveland, O., and Detroit. James Slocum is president of the company and if you are leaning towards a wheel next season at a fair price call on Mitchell and investigate the American Banner at $25.

The Christmas number of the The Christmas number of the Yokahama (Wash.) Herald is before us, thanks to Gay C. Wallace, who has sent us this enterprising publication. Vol. X, No. 49, consists of eighteen pages of typographical beauty and gladdens our eyes with

Mrs. Al Hutton, after a month's interesting reading, beautiful half

A pious looking Detroit drummer ed deputy sheriff for Birmingham who is a guest in town happened to and vicinity. Sheriff Belf has selected a good man for the position, Mr. Fay having served the people for a to ask a blessing, and not being acnumber of years and given good classing, and not being action mitter of the prompty tackled satisfaction. His ability for following the wanted man or woman and securing them is second to none. "We acknowledge the receipt of your favor of this date. Allow us to express our gratitude for this token of good will. Trusting that our house may merit your confidence and that we may have many good orders from you this winter, we are, yours truly, amen." The old man yours truly, amen." T will say grace hereafter.

A Birmingham Boy

With the U. S. Army, on his way to Cuba, Tells All About It.

CHARLESTON, S. C.,

Data Faruna,—We will go on loand the transport his afternoon, and loave to-more row. We will have fairly good accomme dation, and think we will not be more than three days going over. I will cable you as soon as wearirst, if it does not cost too much. There will be three regiment and pur beoptical—shout 3,200 mga—and whave for men saddle fension surves. I have going down. I can see my faith right now faith the purpose of the control of t FATHER,—We will go on board the rt this afternoon, and leave to-more

A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

We All Smoke to the Day, Hop for Many Returns to this Good Lady.

THE NATIONAL HOUSE

Armada, Mich., Dec. 30, '98. Editor of the Birmingham Eccentric:

Yours respectfully, Mrs. E. W. REYNOLDS

Armada, Mich.

Armada, Mich.

P.S.—Smoke to a happy New Year and please hand one to our friend Big

More Electric Roads

John Winter and O. H. Lau, of Datroi John Winter and O. H. Luu, of Distroit, have been granted a franchise from the township of Troy, thus completing their township of Troy, thus completing their township of Troy, thus completing their terms of their control of th

THE STAGE.

A new melodrama of unknown par-but which might have been writt Scott Marble, is to be seen at White Scott Marbid, is to be seen at Whitteny's, it is a spectacular and sensational's story of the area and the south. The wrocc of the bip Neptune is said to be a most thrilling and realistic representation, and the introduction of a big steam threshing machine in operation adds much to the truthfulnes of the glimpses of life on the plantation. It is introduced in the attempted murder of a child, whose perit and rescue form an electrifying situation. Genume darkies and come capers characteristic of their face.

AT THE LYCEUM

AT THE LYCEUM.

Raiph E. Cammings and his well-liked stock company is at the Lyceum in the comedy that SOS Smith Russell formerly played entitled "Peaceful Valley." Since Mr. Cammings last appearance here he has strengthened and increased his organization. It is a strong, quaint character study, in which this ambitious young actor where the considerable success.

CLAWSON.

Lee Halsey starts for Birmingha School on Monday.

Jimmie Lawson and Willie Groves talk of going to a business college in Detroit Mr. and Mrs. Bowers and daughter visited at Charles Newman's at Amy

Sunday G. W. Hunt, Johnnie Lawson and Theria Bailey are on the sick list

Adam Reid is laid up again with boils

Wm. H. Elliott.

We desire to announce that our annual sale of Ainens and House Furnishing Goods will begin Tuesday a. m., Jan. 3d, 1899.

We've been weeks preparing for this sale, carefully examining lines of goods from the best makers and importers and have secured the very best for this important sale. Other departments will assist and you'll find lots of attractions all over this store, We're busy selling Wrappers, fleece lined, well made affairs at 69c, 49c and $1

FOR YOU

-think of buying a good fleece lined Wrapper worth 75c for 49c. A full dollar value at 69c; and for $1 fleece lined Wkappers worth $1.50 and $2

it's to your interest to look anyway

William H. Elliott,

Notice to Taxpayers.

Notice to Taxpayers.

I will be at the following places to receive taxes: At town hall Southfield,
Tuesday, December 27, at Etity's mill
Thursday, Dec. 29, at Harmon P. O.
Tuesday Jan. 3, 1899, at Beldow, Thursday, Jan. 5, from 9 o'clock l.a. m. to 3 o'clock p. m., and every Priday at home in Franklin during the tax season.

Treas. Southfield Township.

A Narrow Escape

A Narrow Escape.

Thankin words written by Mrs. Ada
B. Hart, of Groton, S. D: "Was take with a bad Codd which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption." Bour dectors gave me up, saying I could live but a Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New DisColds. I paweit a trial, food in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank tool I am saved and now a well and healthy woman. Trial bottles free at Regular size for cuts and $1. Guaranteed or price refunded.

assesses

Lunch Parlors.

77 Woodward Ave.. Detreit, Mich.

FENWICK'S

Household Instalment Co. 224 Michigan Ave., Detroit, Mich.

Lace and Drapery Curtains, Carpet Sweepers, Oak and Fancy Rockers and Bedroom Suits. All Goods sold on easy terms--Great reductions given on Cash Purchase Capital Stock, - $40,000.

E. L. Buell, Sec. D. A. Wright, Treas. C. E. Buell, Pres

MARVELOUS RESULTS.

What a Well-known Citizen of Lansing,
Mich., Says of Drake's Dyspepsia
Cure and Nerve Restorer.

that I will be at Colerain postoffic Mondays, Troy Corners Tuesdays, Big Boaver Wednesdays, Birmingham Ba-change Bank Thursdays and at my own home every Friday until Junuary 10. FRANK SCHLACK, Towa Treasurer. 'I have had dyspepsia for IS years "I have had dyspepsia for 18 years. My troubles were indigestion, sour stomach, acid fermentation, palpitation of the heart, sleeplessness and terrible sick-bendache, which at times would en-tirely unfit me for business. I have had special treatment by seren physicians, and it seems as though I have tried meanly every known or supposed temedy, with some little relief, but would soon relapse to the old condition. I commend relapse to the old condition. I commence classing Drakes's Dyappsia Cure and Nerve Restorer a few weeks ago, have used about two and one-half boxes, which have done me more real good than all the treatment and so-called remedies I have ever taken. I would ad-vise any person afflicted with atomach troubles, dyappini, or nerve troubles, to try this treatment.

North Lansing, Mich.
March 22, 1898." Drake's Dyspepsia Cure and Nerve Re testimonals, but is demonstrating its curative power every day, in stubborn cases of acute, chronic and nervous dys-pepsia. A trial will substantiate all that is claimed for it. For saile by F. Hagerman, leading druggist of Birming! ham.

A book on stomach and nerve troubles their symptoms and cures, given free for the asking at the above store.

Sudden Death at Pontiac

James F. Robbins, a weil-known grocery man of Pontiac, died at his home yesterday of heart failure. Mr. Robbins left the hous of heart failure. Mr. Robbins left the house apparently in the best of health: Fifteen minutes later his wife had occasion to visit the barn and was surprised on opening the door to find her husband lying on the floor unconscious. Dr. Murphy, who was passing the house at the time, was called in but found the unfortunate man already beyond earthly laid. He leaves a widow and two daughters.

yound earthly aid. He leaves a wildow and two daughters. The subject of the above sketch lived is our village for a number of years and successfully conducted a wagon abop. From there he moved to Sand Mill and energed in storesception, after which he moved high family to Poutlace, where he had a nice little business and was doing well.

A Christmas Present.

John Busby, the Popular and Successful Superintendent of the Electric, Gets a Surprise.

Superintendent Busby, of the Detroit and

REDUCTION SALE

Winter Millinery

Mrs. S. C. Bird's.

Pontiac, - Mich.

SPECIAL SALE OF WINTER

MILLINERY!

-- Now on at-

MISS \R. Delancey's

Lawrence St. E. - - Pontige, Mich.

• OPEN EVENINGS TILL XMAS. A Cordial Invitation. Comparison Solicited.

Diamonds and Watches Our Specialty

Our location enables us to sell 36

New 'Phone 5822. Established 1865.

UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH. M. B. MAXWELL, P

Best Cough Remedy on Mitchell's White Pine Cough Syrup cures a cold in 24 hours if taken in time and does not stop a cough in one min-ute by paralyzing the throat, but i

Josh W. Bird,

Pontiac, Mich.

Our stock of Winter Suits and Overcoats, also Winter Gents' Furnishings is now complete and we invite your inspection of the same. With a purchase of $15 we will give you a nice Egg Crate which you can carry from one to seventy-two eggs to market with safety. We give the trading stamps if you prefer them. Will dely competition on price and our aim shall be to please you. Come 37 N. Saginaw St.