TALMAGE'S SERMON

THE HORNET'S MISSION LAST SUNDAY'S SUBJECT.

From the Seventh Chapter and Eighth Verse of Deuteronomy as Follows: "The Lord Thy God Will Send the Hornet."

(Copyright 1899 by Louis Klopsch) It seems as if the insect world were determined to extirpate the human race.

In my text, the hornet flies out on its mission, it is a species of wasp, swift in its motion and violent in its stings.

No man ever thinks he has attained his proper position in the world until he is able to look down on somebody.

Some men are so fond of an argument that they will dispute with anybody about the distance to the next town.

The average woman would never be successful in running for office; she would have to stop too often to see if her hat was on straight.

Representatives of Germany and the United States contemplate a joint expedition to the north pole.

An Illinois rural preacher rode over into an adjoining county on his bicycle to wed an eloping couple.

Whooping-cough, when once the acute stage has passed, can often be relieved by anything that issues sugar as it comes into competition with the Cuban product, must go to the wall.

W. K. Anderson, United States Consul at Hanover, says that it seems to be generally admitted that Germany is the world's largest producer of dynamite.

A CHILD'S FANCY. An Explanation of What Seems Preposterous to Imaginative Children.

As a child, my fancy imagination is one of the happy and contented things of life.

When you walk through the fire you shall not be burned." Now you do understand, but you shall know hereafter.

You know that a large fortune may be spent in small change, and a vast amount of moral character may go away in small depletions.

It is the little annoyances that are having the most serious effect on the great swarm of souls.

My friends, when we are assailed by great leibnath of trouble, we become chivalric, and we assault them; we get on the high ground of our courage, and we make a cavalry charge.

Whoooping-cough, when once the acute stage has passed, can often be relieved by anything that issues sugar.
