MORMONS FLOURISHING IN MICHIGAN!

Has Our Interprising Site Lost her Reason, and Will She Continue to Rejoice that Depraved Sect?

The following is an authentic report of the recent Mormon conference held in Lansing. Last week the conference of the northern states mission of the Mormon church was held in Michigan for the first time, and was attended by a number of the prominent officers of the church.

The several speakers cited prophecies from the old Testament, which they asserted pointed to a sainted prophet, who was to come from pure christianity as founded by the Messiah, and that there was consequently a need for the restoration of the ancient gospel to new revelation from God.

The book of Mormon, said President Smith, shows that superior the Bible in its account of the world. It is the only book that speaks of Jesus Christ, and the only book that speaks of the resurrection of the dead.

A bed of the finest China, Asters green ornaments the Water Works grounds. On Maple Ave., east of the railroad, a vine has been carefully trained over a broken post, and it has been much admired all summer.

A beautiful bed of Salvia just off Maple avenue. Bates street attracts much attention, while just opposite a rare cluster of Geraniums still defies the frost.

If the extraordinary large audience which was present had been requested to vote the opinion of "Lucky Luck" after the curtain dropped on the final act at the Whitney Opera House, the unanimous verdict, judging from the interest it evinced and the applause given, would have been that "Lucky Luck" is the best play of its kind that is in its first appearance in Detroit.
