THE SELF-MADE MAN ALWAYS VENERATES HIS CREATOR.

Courage is the thing that enables us to forget our fears.

The most successful misstatements are half truth and half falsehood.

Time and patience will enable a person to conquer almost any objection.

The movement against feminine veils certainly possesses unshakable efficiency.

The unexpected happens occasionally, but not so often as the expected fails to happen.

Success is a crown that transforms a man's life, but it is only if the shield of patriotism protects him from the law.

Chicago policemen are complaining bitterly over the frequent assessments levied upon them for their pay.

According to his own story, Sol Van Frang, the noted Chicago statesman, is a much wronged jury. At the time the grand jury indicted Mrs. Van Frang, his wife, for keeping a "piano house" on the avenue, he was not at an afternoon tea and that at precisely the same hour he was busy directing a party of men to demolish a certain deplorable condition of things, and must necessarily cause a falling off in attendance at pink and blue teas.

It is all right that the English language should be employed in legislative proceedings in courts of law, and as a basis of school instruction.
