robos run against the peddler's pack. Robust health meets war sickness.

I like this democratic principle of the Gospel of Jesus Christ which recognizes the fact that man stands before God on one and the same platform.

Again, the street impresses me with the fact that it is a great field for Christian charity. There are hunger and suffering, and want and wretchedness in the country.

In the first place, the street impresses me with the fact that this life is a race of toil and struggle. It is to avoid every day the life is jarring with work and jangling with toil.

An American firm is building 600 locomotives for foreign countries. This is a fine evidence that trade will follow the eagle.

Alma's mistake lay chiefly in the fact that she had not received from the United States that which she had received from Spain.

Word comes from Hongkong that the Filipinos realize they have made a mistake. Their allies in the United States are a little slower but they are beginning to arrive at a similar conclusion.

Already we have the best export trade record with China of any country in the world. In spite of all our little humiliations the Chinese prefer to trade with us.

It appears that the young dancing queen who has so delighted the admirers of her public entertainment by a long list of names of very distinguished "patronesses" did not go to the trouble of asking the "patronesses" permission.

The largest market of the world for American cottonseed oil is in Marseille, France. In 1897 49,000 tons of oil were shipped there from the United States.

The Corson Homestead on Maple Ave., consisting of 7.5 and 10 acres of land, 100 feet front on Maple Ave., is one of the most valuable lots in the village.

Want a lovely lake farm? Well, here is the one. It is situated on West Boulevard, Birmingham, and is one of the most beautiful farms in the city.

MISS GOULD'S REFUSALS. Received So Many Offers That She Was Forced to Refuse.

Miss Gould's refusals in no way deterred her. She goes about her sitting room, which is the second story front of the old house in Tarrytown, dressed in the most elaborate and expensive of old-fashioned styles.
