THE IRVING OF JAPAN

Mr. Danjuro stands at head of profession.

Has initiated many reforms - The Patrons of the Stage in His Country belong Almost Exclusively to the Middle and Lower Classes.

Whoever first called Mr. Ichikawa Danjuro the Japanese Irving was not unappreciated, says the London Sketch.

A man who always has presence of mind is remarkably gifted.

Men and women may get too old to love, but they never get too old to want to be loved.

A man may be proud of his ancestors but his children are his ancestors would not be proud of him.

One druggist does not make a summer, but his soda fountain enables him to turn out a good many swallows.

New York women are said to have forgotten $1,500,000 and left it in savings banks.

Gen. Merritt says he hugs himself because he is an American citizen, but he never has been known to hug or kiss himself.

"Sanitary, non-sweat/ship make" is a new label placed on the ready-made clothing in a prominent New York firm.

According to statistics compiled in Bombay concerning deaths recorded in India since its beginning, Bombay province suffered most, being responsible for 13,000 deaths.

It is not unworthy of notice that one of the most serious disasters that have befallen our troops during the war occurred to those who were going to the relief of a beleaguered Spanish garrison.

It is pleasant to see a man, or to hear of a man, who preaches about dealing considerately with employees - and then practices it.

"He is only a lath painted to look like iron." Bismarck once said of Lord Salisbury.

Chief Justice Fuller has announced the opinion of the United States Supreme court in the case of Thomas McGrover vs. Eugene D. Winney.

It is generally accepted that the Porto Rican commission will recommend the speedy recognition of a territorial government in that dependency.

Most remarkable living dramatist, is worthy of Bjornson or of Shakespeare.

MR. DANJURO. "Yes, the colonel is going to Washington, and he's going to take me. He tells me that he's going to take me."

Little Boy pointing behind window of indiarubber shop: "What are those?"

Queen Bess: "Grammy! How is the poor creature to walk!" Punch: "It's a question of the necessary legislation."

Humor of Dress. "I had one of those 'What for, my dear?' Little Boy: 'To wear when you wash me.'"

"Ob, for the wings of a dove!" sings a magazine poet. If he continues singing in that strain he'll soon be glad to compromise on a chess sandwich.

Not Posted. "What have we to do with the Bismarck squabble?"

"Can't say, exactly. I don't know whether it's a case of duty, destiny or humanity, or merely an old-fashioned scrap."
