OLYMPIA DROPS ANCHOR OFF TOMPKINSVILLE TODAY.

OLYMPIA DROPS ANCHOR OFF TOMPKINSVILLE TODAY. Comfort depends on training, not on things.

The church's best ornament may be the man in the pew.

A policeman gives further notice when he tells you to "move on."

Astronomy as a science interests fewer people than astronomy does.

The man who has a cloven breath is always taking something for it.

All the world's a stage, but only a few of the actors receive curtain calls.

About the only thing a man wants to wrap himself in of a warm night is slumber.

The youth who patronizes the race course is on the wrong track, figuratively speaking.

Opie Reid has written a novel called "A Carpet Bragger." Ancient history has a great attraction for Opie.

A patriot uses his private influence for the public good, a politician uses the public influence for his private good.

That alleged truth in photographic paper is likely to produce a negative impression on the mind of the ordinary person.

There is a moral in the story of the convict who escaped in 1860 and has just been captured, for of him it has been said: "He has spent his life in jail."

The first parcels post between the United States and any European country had its origin in a convention held last month.

ADMIRAL GEORGE DEWEY. The first marine operations were held in the United States in 1776.

A great American merchant once treated most generously an English customer whom morally and legally he ought to have seriously embarrassed in his business.

HOW I SPENT MY VACATION.

Just a brief description of how I spent my vacation this year, with little more expense than the salary earned during my trip, may not be amiss.

I was a most delightful change from the hook and tinsel that roll over the boundless prairie and from the car windows of a Mission.

When the Olympia reaches the upper bay Admiral Dewey will find that the quarantine station will be decorated with flags and bunting.

When the Olympia, on the day of the Dewey naval parade, rounds the stake boat in North river, the school ship St. Mary's, the boys wearing their white working suits, will man the yards in the saluting custom which obtained when Rear Admiral Sampson.
