BELL-CAMPBELL.

Thomas Bell and Miss Mattie Campbell Married at Royal Oak, Tuesday Last.

On Tuesday afternoon invited guests, near relatives, to the number of 100, from Royal Oak, Clawson, Birmingham and Detroit, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Campbell, of Royal Oak, to witness the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mattie Campbell, to Thomas Bell, of Clawson.

At 2:00 p. m. the bridal party entered the parlor as the wedding march was being played by Miss Frank Symington and took up their positions under a handsome arch of ferns arranged for the occasion. Twenty-eight years ago on the same day and hour, the bride's father and mother were married. Another coincidence made the event a most memorable one to the parents of the bride, was the fact that the same minister who united them in marriage was to perform the same ceremony for their daughter, Rev. Mr. Simpson, of Mt. Clemens, formerly of Royal Oak, being the groom. He was assisted by Rev. J. J. Jackson, of the Royal Oak M. E. Church. The ceremony was performed beneath the long festoons of smilax which hung from the chandelier in the parlor, and terminated in a beautiful arch of ferns and smilax, under which the bridal party stood during the ceremony. The bride was handsomely attired in white silk mull over white taffeta silk, trimmed with chiffon and orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. She was unattended. The groom was attended by Mr. Frank Symington, of Detroit, as best man. The bridesmaids were Misses Nellie Campbell, sister of the bride, and Miss Lillian Bell, sister of the groom. The bridesmaids were dressed in white organdie over white taffeta silk, and carried bouquets of white carnations. The ushers were Messrs. Frank Campbell, brother of the bride, and Mr. Frank Bell, brother of the groom. The ushers were dressed in black.

After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the dining room, which was beautifully decorated with ferns and smilax, and partook of a delicious wedding supper. The bridal table was presided over by Mrs. A. C. Campbell, mother of the bride, assisted by Mrs. Frank Symington, of Detroit, and Mrs. Frank Bell, of Clawson. The table was beautifully decorated with ferns and smilax, and the bridal party were served with the delicacies of the season. The dining room was also decorated with ferns and smilax, and the bridal supper was served at small tables. The bridesmaids were assisted in waiting on the table by Misses Mattie Campbell, Jessie Campbell, Mary Campbell and Mrs. Frank Bell.

The bride received many handsome and costly presents, among which were a check for $1,000 from the groom, a check for $500 from the bride's father, a check for $500 from the groom's father, a check for $500 from the bride's mother, a check for $500 from the groom's mother, a check for $500 from the bride's brother, a check for $500 from the groom's brother, a check for $500 from the bride's sister, a check for $500 from the groom's sister, a check for $500 from the bride's brother-in-law, a check for $500 from the groom's brother-in-law, a check for $500 from the bride's sister-in-law, a check for $500 from the groom's sister-in-law
