William Denison, a well known pioneer of Troy township, died at his home, two miles west of Troy postoffice, Wednesday, Nov. 17th, after a short illness. Deceased was 84 years of age and leaves a widow and four children. The funeral was held Friday last, from his late home and was largely attended. Besides the home circle of mourners, he leaves many friends to mourn his loss. Burial in the Troy cemetery.

Monday evening last the regular monthly business meeting of the Birmingham Epworth League was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Eugene Smith. About 25 members were present and after the regular business had been disposed of, an interesting and profitable social evening.

Blacksmith purchases are cheap. We have the best buckskin hat, and best of all we (Whitehead & Mitchell) have the greatest quality of strap and buckskin. It is a good, heavy strap with a collar of heavy and light. Real buckskin and light buckskin. Once you have seen our strap you will want it.

Wednesday evening, Nov. 7, the O. E. S. held its regular meeting, which, indeed, might be called a special one because of its special features. The Worthy Patron, W. A. Barrow, gave a very full and interesting report of the Grand Chapter meeting of the O. E. S. held at Port Huron, Oct. 10 and 11. The Chapter desiring in some measure to express their appreciation of the efficient work done by their Worthy Patron, Mrs. Emma Ebbels, for the past four years, presented her with a beautiful O. E. S. pin. After the Chapter closed, light refreshments were served by the members of the O. E. S. ...
