MY HALF SISTER

AAA By ELTON HARRIS AAA

CHAPTER X

Madam Dubois was dismissed from that night's conversation over which the beautiful Rochelle had commanded the whole field, and being of which she had evidently thrown her mind off its balance. It was found that she had broken into Mollie's room, and discovering the window open and the room empty, had evidently pursued them down the road, for one of her shoes was found not far from it. When Rochelle made her appearance at breakfast the next morning, the whole of Reggie's self-assumed responsibility seemed to fall upon her. Madame Dubois was not to be found in Reverton, and Reggie had already known more than enough of her to be quite certain that nothing could be gained by pursuing the matter further. Madame cared for him in her peculiar way, but the creature whom she worshipped for whom she had stepped at no cost, could be sacrificed for without the least compunction.

Never since did he desire to ask about her, or did she see him again, but he quietly disappeared from knowledge, though many years afterward Mollie received begging letters at intervals from him. And it was Mollie who took compassion on her enemy and returned good for evil by paying for her to be well cared for in an asylum, where she lingered for some years.

Being left without a guardian, her trustees were quite willing for her to accept Miss Anstruther's offer of a home until her marriage, an offer extended to Kate also, since living at Chalfont was out of the question. Still Mollie would have been happy indeed, but for the secret about her birth.

How shall a mother who is weak and sick with some female trouble bear healthy children?

How anxious women ought to be to give their children the blessing of a good constitution!

Many women long for a child to bless their home, but because of some debility or displacement of the female organs, are barren.

Prepare for healthy maternity is accomplished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound more surely than any other medicine in the world. It gives tone and vigor to the parts, curing all displacements and irregularities.

Every woman is very sure. Many woman is grateful for her advice to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., who receives and answers letters to all expectant or would-be mothers.

Mrs. A. D. Jarret, Belmont, Ohio, writes:

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I must write and tell you what your Vegetable Compound has done for me. Before taking your medicine I was unable to carry a child to maturity, having lost two—one at six months and one at nine. The doctor said next time I would die, but thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I did not die, but am the proud mother of a six months old girl baby. She weighs nineteen pounds and has never seen a sick day in her life. She is the delight of our home."

Mrs. Whitney's Gratitude.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—From the time I was sixteen years old till I was twenty-three I was troubled with weakness of the kidneys and terrible pains when my monthly periods came on. I made up my mind to try your Vegetable Compound, and was soon relieved. The doctor said I never would be able to go my full time and have a living child, as I was constitutionally weak. I had lost a baby at seven months and half. The next time I continued to take your Compound, and I said then, if I went my full time and my baby lived to be three months old, I should send a letter to you. My baby is now seven months old, and is as healthy and hearty as any one could wish. I cannot express my gratitude to you. I was so sad that I did not dare to go away from home to stay any length of time. Praise God for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; and may others who are suffering do as I did and find relief. Wishing you success, and to many homes to be brightened as mine has been, I remain, Mrs. L. Z. Whitney, 14 Hill St., Somerville, Mass."
