W. Bradley, of the firm of Barton & Bradley, monumental dealers, of Milford, was in town Tuesday and Wednesday setting up a stone in Greenwood cemetery for Wm. M. Hall and J. J. Stephens.

Ira Boddow, of the West Bay City schools, was visiting relatives in town Saturday and Sunday last. He reports everything running in first-class shape and his lies seem to have fallen in pleasant places.

Pontiac has two damage suits on her hands caused by people falling on defective sidewalks. Birmingham will not admit the similarity until it is some of the walks about town are not repaired before winter sets in.

On Tuesday evening last 17 members of the H. S. E. met at the dining parlors of H. W. Sherman and enjoyed an old time supper. Topics that were being enjoyed, these are our main subjects.

The ladies of the Improved Presbyterian church of Northside, will give a Grand Social at the residence of Annie Brown on Friday evening, Nov. 13. Everybody is invited to come and have a jolly good time.

Miss Minnie Staley was in town last week. Her husband, the past few months, has been in the hospital and she has been attending to his needs.

A. J. Thompson, of Birmingham, is in town. He is a member of the Birmingham Athletic Association and is a very active member.

The ladies of the Episcopal church held an experience social at the church Monday evening. One of them related that she earned the money by losing her husband every morning before he went to work.

Now the question is which of two married that father Oakland county Democrat.

Seth Gooding, a former resident of Royal Oak township and a member of the Royal Oak Golf and Country Club, at his late residence, 727 W. 12th St., Detroit, Oct. 27, was aged 35 years. He leaves to mourn his loss a wife and three daughters.

Funeral was held from his late home, Friday, Nov. 20, at 11 a. m., with burial in Royal Oak cemetery.

A young man, who had been convicted of a comparatively dead-end that all the pride and self-love of him had taken out of his heart.

To prove it he said he would go down in the audience and kiss an old maid woman. As he went down the aisle the old maid woman rose to her feet and said, "Woe begone, white man, you may not have to prostrate I have. I can't give to let no man Hobson's choice before all these white folks." Ex.

Mr. E. Mathewson, a no longer lived here, but whose home is in Dublin, Texas, has been the guest of his cousins, Mrs. Mary Blum and Mrs. F. Lombard, the past week.

She also called on many old friends in this vicinity, who were in Birmingham, and they had a very good time. They are now in the home of Mrs. J. J. Kellough.

After making his public speech here Judge Baldwin returned home, read his papers till 12 o'clock and next morning declared that he never felt better in his life.

St. James Episcopal church services: Sunday morning, 10:30; Sunday school, 12:30; evening, 7:30. The evening service will begin half an hour earlier during the winter season.

Mr. Wood and wife now occupy their new home purchased from Mr. Wright.

White Cross Dandruff Care is becoming very popular. Sold by Whitehead & Mitchell.

Pontiac is agitating the question of changing the name of their main street, which is the same as ours, Saginaw St., to Woodward Ave. We have always contended that Woodward Ave. is a far more appropriate name for our thoroughfare.

Whitehead & Mitchell, the largest mill in town in regard to wearing clothes, hats. He handled Mitchell's line of clothes this year.

Miss Hilda Howery, of Detroit, was in town Saturday, the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. B. Howery.
