ATTACK THE TOWN.

Bold Attempt Made at Sariaya

Enemy Is Repulsed with Heavy Loss After two Hours Fighting.

We are enabled to give our readers this week an account of a fight at Sariaya, P. I., between a body of Filipinos and a handful of United States troops in which Sergeant Chatfield (son of Lt. Chatfield of this place) demonstrates his ability as a marksman. The account of the affair is taken from The Manila Freedom, of September 29, 1900, and shows how newspapers in that far away land write up great battles.

Special correspondence, 10 a. m. Sept. 20.—Just as the clock struck ten from the church towers this rebels commenced a long range fire on this town. The attack seemed to be from the north, the intention being to draw out a detail in that direction, the main attack being directed from the south and later.

The small garrison of 47 "company" (infantry, left in town, quickly fell in and under Lieutenants Abbott and Hearn were soon in position and vigorously replied to the enemy's fire, and although the insurrectos got into the city they were speedily driven out, the brunt of the fighting being done by 20 men, most of whom were on the firing line, while the remainder were held in reserve to be hurled into line to do their share of the good work.

The attack was planned with great skill, the insurgents cutting the wire east and west of the city, drawing from the garrison a detail of 20 men under Capt. Iverson, who were out on the underfoot road repairing the fence when the attack commenced. On hearing the firing a part of this detail came in at the double, while the captain with eight men attempted to outflank the rebels, but without success. Meanwhile the enemy were in full retreat. On the north side of the town there was one killed and two wounded, from the south side we have no returns up to this writing.

From the church tower 1st Sergt. Chatfield made a fine shot at long range, putting a bullet through a rebel sharpshooter's forehead tumbling him off the roof of a shack and cutting short his military career.

Twenty minutes after the attack commenced reinforcements were in their way from Tayabas under Lieutenant Tarston. The rebels were under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Luna.

The Light of the World

Our Saviour in Art.

Cost nearly $100,000 to produce. Contains nearly 100 full-page engravings of our Saviour and His Mother, by the world's greatest painters. True copies of the greatest Masterpieces in the art galleries of Europe. Every picture as beautiful as a sunrise over the hilltops. Contains description of the paintings, biography of the painters, the names and locations of the galleries in Europe where the original may be seen. Also contains a Child's Department, including a Child's Story of the Christ and His Mother, beautifully written, to fit each picture. This wonderful book matchless in its purity and beauty, appeals to every mother's heart, and in every Christian home where there are children the book sells itself. Christian men and women are making money rapidly taking orders. A Christian man or woman can in this community soon make $5,000 taking orders for Christmas presents. Mrs. Waite, our agent in Massachusetts, has sold over $1,000 worth of the book in a very short time. Mrs. Sackett, our agent in New York, has sold over $1,500 worth of the books in a very short time. The book is printed on velvet finished paper, beautifully bound in Cardinal Red and gold, and adorned with Golden Roses and Lilies. It is, without doubt, the most beautiful book of this century. Write for terms quickly and get the management of that territory. You can work on salary or commission, and when you prove your success we will promote you to the position of Manager and Correspondent, at a permanent salary, to devote your time to attending to agents and the correspondence. Wanted also a State Manager to have charge of office in Leading City of the State and manage all the business of the State. Send for terms. Address—
