CONGRESSIONAL NOTES.

The views of the minority members of the ways and means committee on the bill reducing war revenue taxes about $40,000,000 was completed and made public on the 5th. It is signed by the entire Democratic membership of the committee. The report states the minority are of opinion that the proposed reduction of revenue is too small and that the bill does not go far enough in relieving the people of the burdens imposed upon them for war purposes. The remaining views say the report are unnecessary and should be removed. The minority also Samoan Who Is Not Troubled by the Incompetency of Cooks.

Herbert Ossig has established himself in Samoa among his German fellow countrymen and may remain there. This young German is an interesting character. No woman has a fairer complexion and a clearer eye than he, and no man of his age has a greater capacity for hard work. He lays it all to his diet. Ossig does not believe in meat eating and uses none, least of all in a tropical climate. Nuts and fruits comprise his daily menu, his drinks being distilled water and lemonade. Sometimes he tries the nut pastes and other preparations of a certain sanitarium, but as a rule he cooks his meat to the raw material. I
