

The sun of the morning and the trumpet's music were the first to greet the eyes of the man who had been lying in bed for many days. He opened his eyes and saw the white face of the man who had been lying in bed for many days. He opened his eyes and saw the white face of the man who had been lying in bed for many days.

and the driving needles now ceased for a moment to blind his vision. Before him in a hollow of the bank he saw three forms. Two were prostrate, the other was kneeling, and the soldier realized that the white face of young Karpis was turned toward him, while from the lips came the smothered cry "Sergeant Tiernan."

Tiernan stumbled forward and sank down beside the motionless figure, half covered with snow. "Have I come in an unholy hour from the boys," Tiernan raised the nearest form and looked into the face of Molly Blake. Exposure had wrought done its work. Then a thought flashed into his mind, and with an action as quick as the thought he laid the body of the man on the ground and went to the other side of the house and brought the hot water bottle. There was a bottle of brandy tucked in a box among the blankets and he poured a little of it into the man's mouth.

THE WIND.
I saw you rise the kite on high
And blow the birds about the sky
And all around I heard you pass
To wind whistling all day long.
I wonder that songs could be sung
I saw the different things you did
But always you seemed to hit
I got you out I heard you call
I wonder that songs could be sung
I saw the different things you did
But always you seemed to hit
I got you out I heard you call
I wonder that songs could be sung
