WHY MRS. PINKHAM

Is Able to Help Sick Women When Doctors Fail.

How gladly would men say to woman's aid did they but understand a woman's feelings, trials, sensibilities, and peculiar organic disturbances. These things are known only to women and the aid a man would give is not at his command. To treat a case properly it is necessary to know all about it, and full information, many times, cannot be given by a woman to her family physician.

Mrs. H. H. Chapman.
