No. 20.

This includes all of the Corson addition left unsold, comprising lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 7. Lots 1 and two face west and are next to the new depot of the W. J. Jenks and the others face on Maple Ave. Three are without dispute, on the finest building lots in the village. High and dry, city water, connected to the D. J. & C. Electric Ry. and will be sold cheap and on easy terms. Prices range from $125 up. Let us show you all the particulars about 'em. We also include in this number lots 40, 50, 51 and 52, Block 8 in Urbanrest, near Royal Oak, at $50 per lot.

No. 21.

The Corson Homestead on Maple Ave., consisting of lots 6, 7 and 8 of Willit's plat, being 99x 116½ feet each. 180 feet front on Maple Ave. one of the most valuable residence portions of the village. A good comfortable house and good barn, with ample room for a garden. Fine shade trees and best neighborhood in the village. Frontage alone this desirable on Maple Ave. is worth $25 per front foot. That would make $4,500. Now, owing to the fact that Mr. Corson wishes to sell and sell right away, he will take $3,500, and it ought to be spot cash at that, but that can be changed so that the terms need not worry you at all.

No. 22.

One hundred and ten acres in the township of Troy on section 35 and 36, about 40 acres in timber, beech, maple and elm. On the line of the Detroit, Rochester & Lake Shore Electric Railway, cars every hour each way. 3 miles from the city hall, Detroit. Good buildings, fruit, etc., etc. Will have one such side of the road with 1 to 4 acres with a new house and barn with three complete pieces and in good repair. Good fruit, good land, good location. Best 4 reasons for selling. The farm is owned by Adam M. Wood, here is the most interesting part of it: he will sell it at a fair price and that is all that he pays for it. The electric cars are within sight of it, only 3 miles from a good school and half a mile to the post office.

No. 23.

Feed Mill at Royal Oak, Mich. Four lots, factory and basement will with an 8-horse power steam engine. Ypsilanti feed roller process. Building alone worth $1,000, to say nothing of the lots. Good farming country, no competition. Well established business with excellent run of custom. Satisfactory reasons for selling. Made known to customer.

WAR PICTURES FROM TRANSVAAL

Man's Inhumanity to Man Vividly Brought to the Surface.

Reports from England tell us that the gray hairs of the beloved queen are indeed "being brought down with sorrow to the grave." Although other heads have contrived and other heads have executed in such a manner as to carry England into the South African war, still the good queen feels the terrible responsibilities upon her own shoulders.

This is perhaps the most pathetic incident of the war. A fearful old lady whose life has been a pleasure to her people is gray-headed with the thought that her boys are dying in battle.

If parliament is closed to-day from fear that the queen will not be able to read the speech from the throne, it is not because the queen is afraid to trust herself to the cold air, but because she is afraid to trust herself to the cold air without her boys.

Now, we have no doubt that Lord Salisbury is a very good man, and that he is a great lover of peace. We have no doubt that he would like to see the Chinese peninsula [illegible] and that he would like to see the Boers [illegible] but that he would like to see the Boers [illegible] and that he would like to see the Boers [illegible] and that he would like to see the Boers [illegible] and
