

To Our Friends.

When trading with any of our advertisers in Birmingham, Pontiac or Detroit, it will be a great favor to us if you will mention the fact that you noticed their advertisement in our paper. A word from you at the time of trading, goes you and benefits us greatly. Will you be good and do so?

THE BIRMINGHAM ECCENTRIC.

THIS PAPER FARM JOURNAL
ONE YEAR. 5 YEARS.

Pay Up and Get Both Papers at Price of One.

We want to say to our readers that we are glad to see the success of the Birmingham Eccentric and Farm Journal. We are glad to see that you are getting the best of both papers at the price of one. We are glad to see that you are getting the best of both papers at the price of one.

You know what our paper should be. It should be a paper that is full of news and interest. It should be a paper that is full of news and interest. It should be a paper that is full of news and interest.

HOME NOTES

THE LADY FORGETTERS

The lady forgetters will give a social at Mrs. Henry Vessens' next Friday evening, March 21. Supper too. Everybody invited.

The L. L. C. will meet with Mrs. Peabody next Monday evening. The meeting will be a memorial one in memory of Mrs. Langley.

The mass-meeting Sunday evening was largely attended. Messrs. Braut and Crosby are forcible speakers, and earnest workers in the cause.

Miss E. H. Haskins has resigned her position as postmistress of Walnut and Miss Higby has received the appointment, thanks to Hon. S. W. Smith.

Anyone contemplating painting their house will hear of something greatly to their interest by leaving their name and address at the Eccentric office.

Charles M. Skelton's book, "His Steps," has been the best selling book of the year; the number reaches up into the millions; the course it is in our library.

Gold pieces in a case were lost last Monday evening at the M. E. Church. A man who was carrying a case of gold pieces was passing through the church when he lost them.

A business meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the home of Mrs. B. M. Tuesday, Feb. 27, at 2:30 p. m. All interested in the plans for the coming year are invited to be present.

Married, Feb. 15th, at the home of the bride, two miles east of Big Beaver, Miss Edith Moore and Fred Keyes, Rev. Clark officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Keyes will reside on a farm northeast of Troy.

of his father, William Goodman, who is well known by everybody in and around Birmingham. Mr. Goodman died at his home in Clark at 6:30 Tuesday morning. He had been ill for some time and his many friends noticed that on his last visit here he was declining. His funeral was held yesterday morning and his burial was at Clark.

Five years is a good while we know, and in that time some may move and some pass over to the great beyond, but the Farm Journal will come just the same to everyone who takes advantage of the clubbing offer which the Farm Journal has made its subscribers.
