

Pointed Questions

What do you think of sales, so called, with no motive given for their existence?

What do you think of buying damaged goods at so-called cheap prices?

They are found to give out when least expected. Facts rule, and the reason that such goods cannot be sold for more is because they are worth no more. A comparison will prove it. Challenge any and all to give better than my ordinary, extra value. New goods, some damaged, if priced less than any, because I have lower expenses than any of my competitors.

THE SCARLET SPIDER.

How the scarlet spider, and in a night's time, between two that had been about a week for either to be, but the strength of his will never he able to work it.

Who was he? He hardly knew. A partner, the thought of him as nothing else. All the women were even partners as a matter of course.

Take their last had said. "Will you have the goodness to look after my niece Miss Hilda?" Edith let me present Mr. Kirkland? They bowed. They could not well see another's faces there in the twilight. It was a skating party, at Lake Geneva, Wis., and two big companies had come down for a week of winter sports, following open the boys, as which ordinarily know the count of human voice only in the summer time. The two partners met the first evening after dinner on the ice. It was dark, with bits of drizzle when the stars showed, and they were going to walk from the skating rink to the hotel, and Edith was to take her niece to the hotel.
