SOME LOCAL NOTES

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

Some vandal stole over 20 tulips from the yard of Mrs. Randall a few nights ago and the lady never refuses to give flowers to anyone.

Notice—A good spray pump was taken from a lady's wood-house on Maple Ave. not long ago and if the taker will bring it back immediately it will save trouble.

The Village Improvement Society have tried for three years to get the electric road to replace the trees on the west side of Woodward down the hill. They have failed again.

Miss Belle Potter, of Detroit, has been visiting the families of Mrs. O. C. Gibbs and Mrs. George, of Big Beaver, the past week or so and the entertainment has been mutual and plenty.

Married, at Wixom, Oakland Co., Aug. 25, 1890, H. F. Sarvis, of Detroit, and M. Marion Hoyt, of this place. Rev. James Dennis, of Wixom, officiating.

Ave. M. E. [illegible] at the morning service

[illegible] Sabbath.

Georgie Dort has been quite ill with pneumonia but the little fellow is improving, much to the joy of his parents.

The lawn on the east of the M. E. church has been mown and greatly improved. Let the good work go on.

Every woman in the Methodist church should read the proceedings of the conference recently in session in Chicago.

Just look down Maple avenue to the west. If it were properly graded it would be the finest street in the country.

Regular communication of Birmingham Lodge, No. 11, F. & A. M., next Thursday evening. Initiation of [illegible].

The Ladies' Excelsior gave a cream social at Mrs. Travis Simpson's, Wednesday, June 11. Further notice next week.

Joe Jones and Frank Doty took in the beauties of Belle Isle Park Saturday last. They made the trip on their wheels.

Don't forget the Ladies' Aid at Mrs. Vermilyea's this Friday afternoon. Everyone welcome. Supper 10 cents. Fannie Shaw, Sec.

J. F. Kellogg has a few words to say in a new ad'v't this week about table supplies. His goods are all pure and fresh and he will be pleased to have you read and see him. Don't forget to read his ad'v't this week.

E. E. Sprague, of Detroit, died at his home in that city Wednesday of last week of pneumonia after a short illness. Funeral was held Friday at Plymouth with interment at that place. Mr. Sprague was a former resident of Troy.

We think that if the D. & P. Ry. ever got a hint of how very badly a four-bulb light is needed at Brown St. for their passengers' welfare and convenience, we are sure one would be placed immediately. It is a dark corner on account of trees, but next to Maple Ave. in point of passenger travel going and coming. Think it over.

The matter of securing a steel cage or some other place in which to confine drunken men, who have been much in evidence of late, is to be brought to the attention of the village fathers and it is to be hoped that prompt action will be taken in the matter. There is no question but what something of this kind is needed.

No insect that crawls, even the pesky bed-bug, can live under the application of hot alum water. It will destroy red and black ants, cockroaches, spiders, bed bugs and all the myriads of crawling pests which infest our homes, starting the hottest kind. Try it on [illegible] carpet bugs and [illegible] results.
