

LOST ON THE... VELD

A STORY OF THE BOER CAMPAIGN IN NATAL

By H. B. Mackenzie

THEY WERE ALL... THE BOER CAMPAIGN IN NATAL

THEY WERE ALL... THE BOER CAMPAIGN IN NATAL

THEY WERE ALL... THE BOER CAMPAIGN IN NATAL

THEY WERE ALL... THE BOER CAMPAIGN IN NATAL

THEY WERE ALL... THE BOER CAMPAIGN IN NATAL

THEY WERE ALL... THE BOER CAMPAIGN IN NATAL

THEY WERE ALL... THE BOER CAMPAIGN IN NATAL

THE FIRST BATTLE. IN THE WAR FOR OUR INDEPENDENCE.

How the American Farmers, through the British, were permitted to fire the opening guns.

It is the night of April 18, 1877, in the little village of ...

... the British ... the American ...

... the British ... the American ...

... the British ... the American ...

Capt. Joseph Homer turns indignantly to Col. Barrett and demands: "Will you let them burn the town?"

Col. Barrett now calls the other militia officers about him and they confer over the situation.

... the British ... the American ...

... the British ... the American ...

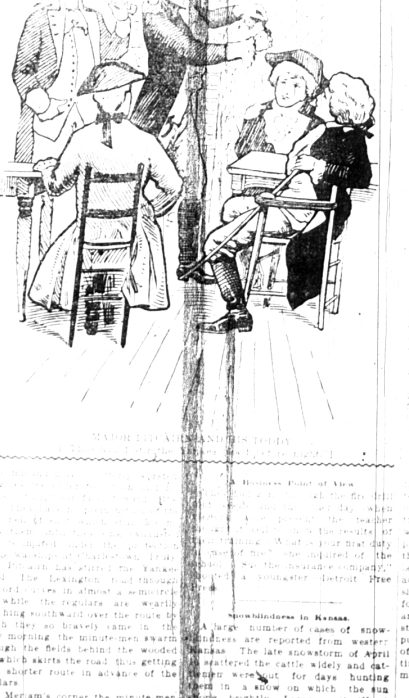

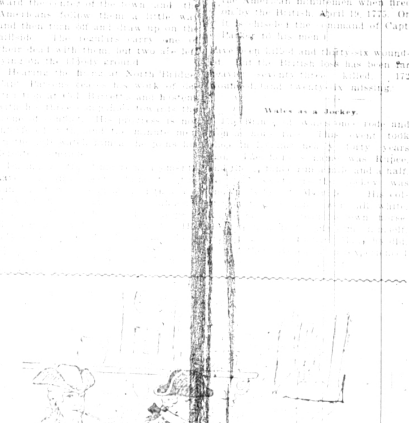

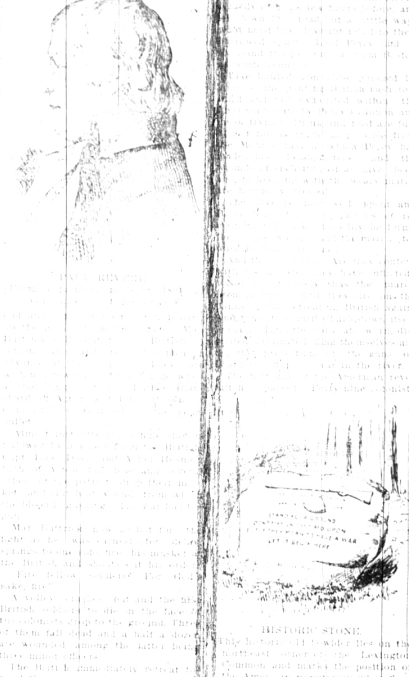

... the British ... the American ...

Short Horse of the Future.

At the February meeting of the American ...

... the future ... the horse ...

... the future ... the horse ...

MAJOR T. J. ...

A good test of housekeeping is the quality of the coffee.