DEWEY ON PARADE

Detroit, Saturday, June 9.

Not only Detroiters, but also the residents of the surrounding country and northern Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, will turn out en masse and tender Dewey a rousing reception upon the occasion of his visit to Detroit, Friday and Saturday, June 8 and 9. The afternoon and evening of the first day will be given up to welcoming ceremony and banquet, to which the number of participants will be limited. The parade on the river and Lake St. Clair in the morning. The revenue cutter, Fessenden, U. S. S. Michigan and an immense fleet of pleasure craft, all gaily decorated, will be in line. At 4 o'clock in the afternoon the grand military and civic parade will start, the route covering about three miles of downtown streets. The city will be in "full dress" for the occasion.

Come to see Dewey--and Shafer's.

Vassar, Mich., May 30, 1909.

For some weeks I could not get this Elixir. It has failed to reach me several times before and I have been very anxious to get it. I have been very much troubled by indigestion and I have been very much troubled by indigestion and I have been very much troubled by indigestion.
