GEN. POLE-CAREW.

A Veteran Campaigner Who Is Winning New Honors in Africa.

Gen. Reginald Pole-Carew, who is rendering a good account of himself under Lord Roberts in South Africa, went out to the seat of war as lieutenant-colonel of the Coldstream Guards, but was soon advanced to brigadier general and then to major-general. He is an old campaigner, having fought in the Afghan war of 1879, which he served as aide-de-camp to Gen. Roberts. He was engaged in the actions at Cabul, in the operations around Ghuznee, and in the storming of Takin Shah. Later in the campaign he was present at the capture of Ghuznee, and was mentioned in dispatches. He received the medal with clasps for Ahmed Khel and Kabul to Kandahar star, and was also decorated with the Order of the Medjidie. He was a member of the Egyptian Army of Occupation, and in the Soudan in 1885. He is 53 years of age.

SIAM'S NEW MINISTER.

PRINCE CHAROON, SIAM'S NEW MINISTER.

Respect Inspired by American Women.

What Could He Do?

An exchange gives this example of the difficulties sometimes encountered under Russian laws: Said an official to a traveler, subject of a great country, sir: "You can't remain in the country, sir." "Very well," returned the traveler, "then I'll leave it." "Have you a permit to leave?" "No, sir." "Then you cannot leave. I give you twenty-four hours for making up your mind what to do!"

THE STORY OF AN OAK.

By Hugo Erichsen, M. D.

Written for The Birmingham Eccentric.

How the acorn came to be planted there, the Lord knows, but in the course of time it developed into a mighty tree that was firmly rooted and tenacious of life. Its crown was high in the air and towered above the surrounding giants of the forest, and its spreading branches afforded shelter to a variety of denizens of the animal and bird kingdom.

A CONSTANTLY CHANGING STOCK OF TAILOR-MADE SUITS.

An ever-changing variety of these dressy garments awaits you at this store. The styles of today are gone tomorrow and so on. Why? We buy only a few of a kind, because we realize that well dressed women dislike meeting others with a like suit on.

Besides quality and price this store insures exclusiveness. Within the week we have received 47 suits, manufacturers' samples, not two alike, but however, the very latest creations of one of the foremost manufacturers in New York. Prices range from $7.50 to $35 each. We've also received a number of light grass linen Suits at $12.50 that are exceptional value. And some novelty Etons with black applique facings over white taffeta at $15.00 and $22.50. Brown, blue, grey mode, tan and black suits made from Venetians, silk and cloth jackets at $12.50.

New Skirts. Separate Jackets and Shirt Waists.
