Daring Man Goes Through the Niagara Whirlpool.

Peter Nissen of Chicago, who prefers to be known as "Bowser," made a successful journey through the Niagara rapids and whirlpool Monday afternoon in his boat the Footkiller. The boat struck the first foam-topped wave and turned over as easily as if it had been a stick instead of having a 1,250-pound keel. Man and boat disappeared. The watchers thought it was all over, when suddenly farther down stream Bowser reappeared, smiling. He had with one hand and a sunburned jersey. Up with the other. The boat had righted itself. The oars had been lost. Bowser found himself in the whirlpool and was carried around in it two times before he could get out.

Our Annual Midsummer Sale.

Five summers ago we inaugurated our first midsummer sale. Each year since we have increased the importance of the event by offering unusual bargains. Originally it was more a clean up of broken lines. Now it is one of the principal features of the year. It has changed a formerly quiet period into a seasonable business activity. It provides bargains that are acceptable at no other time. Formerly "left overs" and "Jagged sellers" were all that was offered you now, we plan months ahead the marked inducements for these occasions, draw upon resources prepared that we may offer merchandise very cheap—large quantities of staple goods purchased at reduced prices in preparation for this sale. And while we control the "clean up" plan, we are determined to offer you many unheard of bargains in lines of really desired goods. Familiarity with the class of goods we handle emphasizes the importance of this sale.
