HORTICULTURAL, GRAPHIC ARTS, FORESTRY AND MINES BUILDINGS AT BUFFALO.

At the Pan American Exposition, which is to be held at Buffalo, N. Y., from June 1st to October 1st, 1900, the Horticultural building, 225 feet square, is planned on the south by the Forestry and Mines and on the north by the Graphic Arts buildings each 140 feet square. The whole group is fronted by a wide, open, public square in which will stand the "Fountain of the Seasons." The Horticultural building will be about 200 feet high. The Graphic Arts and Forestry and Mines buildings are companion structures of the same size and style, having four corner towers. Two colored elevations show the eastern exterior of the Horticultural building which will represent Greece and the west, in a colored drawing by three ladies by Flora and Primavera.
