Mrs. Corson's house on Maple avenue is being repaired and much improved in appearance.

Charlie Shank and his mother are away visiting relatives and friends at Port Huron and Imlay City. This is the second week of their absence and that Charlie is enjoying his vacation goes without saying.

August 1st, at the special election held in Pontiac, it was decided that Pontiac will have to do with the present water facilities and the sewer proposition was buried so deep that it may never rise again.

Some persons have become convinced that both monuments and headstones are a cemetery lot not to their advantage, and are not to good appearance, and if required can at any time be moved to their lots at small expense.

We have been favored with a visit from Mrs. Wm. Stone, of Detroit, and Mrs. Alfred Lakes, East Side. Mrs. Stone visited in the stirring Home town when quite a young lady, and we are not at liberty to say how long ago. Should we be so indiscreet as to tell, we would be Donna.
