Viceroy Li Hung Chang's Private Army.

Any European statesman who, at a critical moment in the affairs of his country began to raise a private army without making it clear that it was for the good of the government, would speedily find himself in serious trouble. Not so with Li Hung Chang, however.

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME,

Notre Dame, Ind.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Notre Dame University, one of the most popular educational institutions of the West which appears in another column of this paper. Those of our readers who may have occasion to look up a college for their sons during the coming year would do well to correspond with the president, who will send them a catalogue free of charge, as well as all particulars regarding terms, courses of studies, etc.

There is a thorough preparatory school in connection with the university, in which students of all grades will have every opportunity of preparing themselves for higher studies. The Commercial Course, designed for young men preparing for business, may be found in successful operation in this institution. The Law School, St. Edward's Hall, for boys under fifteen years of age, are departments of the institution. The higher courses are thorough in every respect, and students will find every opportunity of perfecting themselves in any line of work they may choose to select. Thoroughness in class work, exactness in the care of business, and devotion to the best interests of pupils are the guiding characteristics of the University.

Fifty years of faithful work in the cause of education entitle this institution to the confidence of the country.

The climate is mild and conducive to the best results in study. Discipline is firm but kind. Parents may feel assured that their sons will receive the most careful attention in every respect.

RECREATION AND HEALTH.

Both Can Be Secured at the Indiana Mineral Springs, Indiana.

Like the young man in springtime, whose fancy "lightly turns to thoughts of love," when summertime comes we all turn our thoughts to the consideration of the important question of where we shall go for rest, recreation and health.

There are all kinds of health and pleasure resorts throughout this broad land of ours, some of them unfortunately anything but what their names imply, and apparently operated for no other purpose than to relieve the invalid and pleasure seeker financially. So much so is this the case that it is indeed gratifying for the one seeking rest to turn away from the cares of the business and social world, as well as the pain racked invalid, who is fortunate enough to discover a place where to get a proper exposition for one's health's worth.

One of the most attractive picturesque and complete places in this country is unquestionably the resort known as the Magnetic Well and Lithia Water Cure, located at Indiana Mineral Springs, Indiana. Here come the overworked business man, the worn out devotee of society and the professional man on the verge of nervous prostration, as well as the sufferer from rheumatism, kidney and liver diseases, for which the waters are a veritable boon.
