Would Not Marry a Noble.

Among the many fair ones who resort to Newport this season none will be more sought after than Miss May Goelet, the 20-year-old daughter of the famous merchant of New York, recently deceased. Her debut in society will be made at Ochre Court, the palatial summer home of the Goelets, and those who have had the pleasure of her acquaintance unite in pronouncing her the loveliest of the débutantes of many years past. She has just refused the
