Elephant Tragedy.

Elephant Makes Short Work of His Turnouts.

At Sunday afternoon, while a concert was being held at the Crystal Palace, an elephant belonging to a circus had been performing there from its fastenings and killed its driver. It then brushed through the partitions of wood and glass, and burst in the main building, where a great number of persons were sitting to the music. It did not attempt to hurt any of the crowd though the floor of its trunk the splintered floor of a window, probably under the impression that it represented a man about to be killed.

After some time it allowed itself to be led by a man to the street. It was then placed in the street and a crowd of people gathered around it. A London gunmaker was sent to the scene and shot the animal with a rifle. It was then taken to a place where it was kept until it died.

POPES STOMACH REGULATOR

ATTORNEY A. J. KELLOGG, OF DURAND, MICH., SAYS:

"I had a very severe attack of Stomach trouble. I was unable to eat anything but prepared foods. Every thing I ate caused me to vomit. I tried several physicians' prescriptions but obtained no relief. A trial of your medicine was made and I was cured."

will not only cure Stomach trouble, but after taking two bottles I was able to eat anything I desired. I was cured. It is the only one of its kind.
