WHITEHEAD & MITCHELL

A YOUNG MAN DROWNED.

The Nishna River Claims Another Victim.

A young man about 17 years of age, named B. H. Reynolds, of the Farmington, Mich. District, died at the Nishna River, near Farmington, Michigan, on the 10th inst.

The young man was a student at the Farmington High School, and was on his way to school on the morning of the 10th inst. when he was drowned in the Nishna River.

The body was recovered on the 11th inst. and was buried in the Nishna River cemetery on the 12th inst.

The cause of the drowning is believed to have been a sudden change in the current of the river, which caused the young man to lose his footing.

The Nishna River is a dangerous place for swimmers, and it is hoped that this tragedy will serve as a warning to others.

The young man was a very popular student, and his death is a great loss to his family and friends.

The Nishna River is a beautiful stream, but it is also a dangerous one, and it is hoped that this tragedy will serve as a warning to others.

In Memoriam

In loving remembrance of Mrs. Anna Marie (Wright) Smith, who died on the 10th inst. at the age of 78 years.

Mrs. Smith was born in the town of Farmington, Michigan, and was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

She was a very kind and generous person, and she will be missed by all who knew her.

The funeral services will be held on the 12th inst. at 10 o'clock a. m. in the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The burial will take place in the Nishna River cemetery on the 13th inst.

The Nishna River is a beautiful stream, but it is also a dangerous one, and it is hoped that this tragedy will serve as a warning to others.
