Mrs. Blanche W. Dewey, of Detroit, will leave a few pupils for instruction on the violin. Mrs. Leggett is no stranger to the people of this vicinity, having had a large class here a few years ago. She has made a second visit to Pine Grove, and again studied under the most talented masters there. Her success as a musical artiste is second to none, and anyone desiring to receive instruction from her can easily do so by leaving word at the Eccentric office. Mrs. Leggett has time for about four pupils and will begin on or about that time. She will probably be found at Mrs. Hall's during the time she remains in this vicinity.

The Bessie Cornell Dramatic Company is playing to crowded houses in Detroit this week. They will be in Pontiac next week, Monday and Tuesday evenings, and another packed house is assured. Manager Cornell has a strong company and will have a fine line of scenery and will produce the plays in a first class manner. Don't forget the dates, Monday and Tuesday evenings, Sept. 17 and 18.

The Ann Arbor Democrat says: "Mrs. Dr. Prentiss, of Detroit, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Judson Bennett, of this city. Mrs. Prentiss had not seen her parents for eight years, and the meeting was a very happy one."
