COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.
The following report was made by the Executive Committee of the Council, held at the Detroit Club, Thursday evening, Jan. 24, 1920.
The meeting was opened by the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting, which were approved. The report of the Executive Committee was read, and the following resolutions were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS.
Resolved, That the Council express its appreciation to the Detroit Club for the use of its rooms for the meeting of the Council on Thursday evening, January 24, 1920.

Things to Forget.
If you would increase your happiness and prolong your life, forget your neighbor's faults. Forget the shadow you have heard. Forget the temptations of the fault-finding and give a little thought to the cause which provoked it.

Farm for Sale.

Detroit, Mich.

Discovered by a Woman.
Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this corner. "Discovered" is the title of her latest book, "The Secret of Discovery." It is a story of a woman who was determined to find out the secrets of discovery, and who finally discovered a way to become a millionaire by discovery.

Banker's Recommendation.
Pittsburgh, Mich., Jan. 20, 1920.
To the Honorable Mr. J. L. Hudson, Detroit, Mich.:
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 18th inst. in relation to the loan of $500.00 to the Detroit Trust Co. I have been very pleased to hear of your success in business, and I am glad to hear that you are so well.

On Cents' Worth of Prevention.
If you are subject to colds, coughs, croup, or any of the other ailments of the throat and lungs, you should take a course of the famous
"Cents' Worth of Prevention" at once. It is a natural and safe method of preventing these ailments.

A Few IFS.
If civilization civilized.
If representatives represented.
If the Christmas spirit lasted all year.
If clouds were forgotten as soon as April.
If promises, like prizes, were not so soon forgotten.
How different this world would be—

Current Topics
Model Town Built by Experts.
The most interesting experiment now in progress is that being made at Belmont N. J., where a model manufacturing town is being built up under the direction of George S. Young and William H. Titman, respectively president of an I. & O. Co., the Society for Social Service, Inc., and one of the founders of the model town. It is being built on land owned by the I. & O. Co., and is being built up in a planned manner, with all the modern amenities of a modern town.

Rebelle Against the Trust.
Miss Henrietta Crossman has lately been playing 'Nell Gwyn' at the Savoy theater, New York. As the play was written by a woman, it is not surprising that it should have been a success. The play is a study in character, and is a well-written and well-acted production. Miss Crossman's performance was excellent, and the play was a success.
