IT IS NOW GOV. BLISS.

Notwithstanding the Cold Weather Ceremony was Held Outdoors.

PINGREE AND BLISS TALKED.

Former Gov. Pingree Used His Pardoning Power Up to the Last Hour—U. S. Senator McMillan Reappointed to Succeed Himself.

Hence, seven self-confessed murderers, who, some of the oldest convicts, both in years and length of service, in Jackson prison, after serving 15 years was paroled by Governor Pingree on the Tuesday. Hon. H. Lane Dickinson, the Governor's private secretary, and Hon. Levi T. Griffin, the Governor's legal adviser, were also paroled. Hon. Thomas H. Sherwood, of Detroit, secretary of state, and Hon. Fred M. Warner, of Dearborn, auditor general, were also paroled. Hon. Aaron T. Bliss, lieutenant governor, for years a member of the state senate, and Hon. Edgar O. Durfee, of Detroit, secretary of the state board of pardons, were also paroled. Hon. Thomas D. Adams, paroled.

11 More Pardoned and Paroled.

The following prisoners were pardoned and paroled by Gov. Pingree on the afternoon of Saturday, January 3, 1891: Solomon Fogg, sentenced from Kalamazoo county for manslaughter; Francis Bradley, Detroit, forgery; Thomas Bennett, Ann Arbor, embezzlement; Andrew Johnson, Detroit, grand larceny; Thomas Sullivan, Detroit, grand larceny; Thomas Mahoney, Detroit, grand larceny; Thomas Mahoney, Detroit, grand larceny; Thomas Mahoney