

PAN-AMERICAN

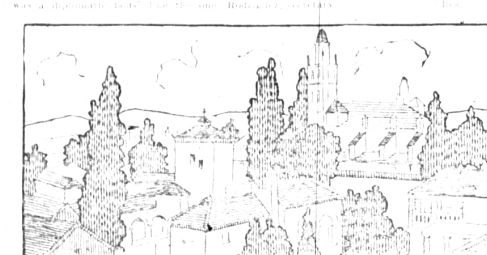

CONGRESS

At last it is settled that the Pan-American conference in the City of Mexico is to be held according to the programme, which sets the date of the first session for Oct. 22. It has been approved for the time and appointed delegates and that it covers the last of the year.

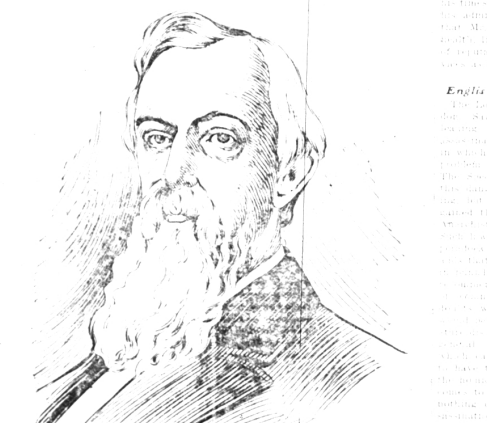

From an opening of the conference accomplished by this conference will do great good. Every such gathering helps to bring the nations together and familiarizes them with the idea of the first session for Oct. 22. It has been approved for the time and appointed delegates and that it covers the last of the year.

Autograph of McKinley When a Boy

Mr. Martin Sully of Sharon, Penn. is the possessor of an autograph album in which President McKinley wrote a verse of poetry when he was attending the academy at Piquette, Pa. He was then 11 years old, but was considered one of the brightest students in the academy.

The album was originally owned by Mrs. Lucy Reno, mother of Mrs. Sully, and she was a school friend of McKinley.
