Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It. How to Find Out. Another Descriptive Letter from Bert Blakeslee. Includes an illustration of a man and text describing kidney symptoms.

Dear folks at home: I do not know when I have been quite so tired in all my life as I am today. For two days now it has been a steady tramp over mountains, valleys and I don't know what. We got here about 2 a. m. and at 4:15 a. m. about 300 of us were up watching the harbor, as we came to it. I cannot tell you how glad every one was to see land, and as they looked at the mountains they were disappointed to get off the boat and tramp around in the water in the hot sun.

Shafer's Great Store The Scene of a Sensational CLOSING OUT SALE!

No trade event in the history of Michigan ever created such intense interest as our closing out sale of Shafer's stock in the Marquette Building, Detroit. As a result of the enormous transaction published in the newspapers and the announcements that we had closed out a vast volume of the entire stock, made this store and its new owners the topic of conversation everywhere. People expected unusual bargains, but we more than surprised them with the way the prices were cut. In every department of the immense store it was the same. Large quantities of every kind. Now, closing out late merchandise sale at lower prices than have ever been known for in our store, stocks and goods of doubtful character and worth.
