NAMES THAT ARE POPULAR.

William Has a Firm Hold on First Place.

Parents display some queer notions of propriety in naming their children. Those of a critical turn of mind more frequently indulge in that than do those restricted by the fetters before the baptismal ceremony. Parents in search of a fortune will label their luckless babes with the surname of the respected testator. But nevertheless the list of common English christian names has not varied much in the course of forty. Most fathers and mothers of male children name at least their eldest son William.

The favorite name is undoubtedly William. In the reign of James I. it was the favorite name of the day. [illegible] Charles, with its variations, Charles, Carl, Carlo, Karl, Carlos, Carolus, Carlotta, Carlotta, Carlotta
