Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand two days; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys, if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bad or are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in many ways, in hospital practice, in private practice, and has proved wonderful in almost every case because it is nature's remedy and acts in harmony with the natural functions. The mild and the extraordinary effects of Swamp-Root are soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.

AS THE WORLD REVOLVES

GOVERNORS IN A ROW.

Governor Beckham of Kentucky has addressed to Governor Durbin of Indiana a letter replying to the criticism by that executive of the courts and officials of Kentucky in his recent letter refusing to honor the requisitions for Taylor and Finley, wanted for alleged complicity in the assassination of Senator Goebel, says a Louisville dispatch to the Chicago Inter Ocean. He severely arraigns Durbin for his refusal charging that in doing so he violated his oath of office to support the constitution of the United States, and that he became "a party after the fact to the most infamous crime in the history of the state. Governor Beckham declares the murder of an eminent and distinguished citizen of Kentucky. The Kentucky executive does not mince words in his criticism in declaring that the refusal of the Indiana governor was the result of the latter's desire to shield certain fugitives from justice and officials of Kentucky as accessories before the fact to the murder of Governor Goebel. He takes the ground that the governor of a state has no discretionary power to set aside international comity in the honoring of requisitions for fugitives from other states, and this is taken as an indication that steps will be taken in the courts to compel Durbin to maintain his honor the requisitions. If such proceedings are instituted they will be in the name of Indiana and taken up against the state's

HALL CAINE'S WIFE.

The wife of the author of "The Christian" came out from Greeba Castle when her husband began his campaign for the Manx Parliament a month ago and has made herself a familiar figure to all in the Ramsay district, which her husband has been elected to represent. She spent the most of a month driving around in the district visiting factory workers and fishermen, whose votes and influence the novelist sought. Mrs. Caine is a handsome woman, striking in manner and graceful, and is believed to have won her husband many votes which he otherwise would not have
